

House Concurs in WDA Bill; Delays Return to Senate

No Changes Written Into Kannenberg 'Little TVA'

BALLOT IS 55 TO 20 Opponents Strive in Vain to Stall Assembly Passage

Madison—(U)—The assembly concurred in the Kannenberg Wisconsin development authority bill today, 55 to 20, but the measure's supporters were unable to muster enough votes to send it back to the senate immediately.

No changes were made by the assembly in the measure which appropriates $60,000 for use in state promotion of utility programs. It is referred to frequently as the "little TVA" measure because of its similarity to the federal Tennessee Valley authority act.

Given Progressive support throughout its course in the legislature, the bill was sponsored by Senator Roland E. Kannenberg (P), Wausau, and is identical to a measure introduced by Assemblyman A. J. Biemiller (P), Milwaukee, previously passed by the assembly, but sidetracked in the senate.

Opponents used all available parliamentary moves to stall passage in the house. The assembly, after voting concurrence, refused by a vote of 55 to 34 to suspend the rules and message it back immediately to the senate from where it will go to Governor LaFollette for signature.

Speaker Paul Alfonsi (P), Pence, moved to make a vote on reconsideration of suspension of the rules a special order of business Monday. Administration leaders demanded speedy action to prevent possible death of the bill as a result of early sine die adjournment of the session.

A preliminary vote rejecting a motion for nonconcurrence was 50 to 35, the sponsors picking up five votes on final passage and the opposition losing 15.

Assemblyman Milton T. Murray (R), Milwaukee, and Cornelius Young (D), Milwaukee, led the opposition in the final stage, contending the measure could not be placed on final passage under house rules until next week.

The ruling of Assemblyman John W. Groshmidt (P), Milwaukee, who was presiding, that a final vote was in order was sustained in an appeal to the floor.

During discussion Assemblyman Robert Tehan (D), Milwaukee, charged Senator Kannenberg had been inconsistent. He said Kannenberg labeled the Biemiller bill "socialistic" and then insisted on passage of an identical measure, except that it carried the name of the sponsor, Kannenberg.

"I feel nothing but contempt for Kannenberg," Tehan said. "Biemiller, who freely admits he favors socialistic ideas, is a man of principle who can be admired."

Michigan Legislature In Its Closing Hours

Lansing, Mich.—(U)—The legislature was in the closing hours of its record-breaking session today, with most of its major issues tied up in inter-house disputes.

Civil service and labor relations bills were sent to conference committees. The house refused to accept a substitute labor relations bill passed by the senate and the senate disagreed with amendments attached to the civil service bill by the house.

Old age pension liberalization, liquor control, state public school aid, Governor Murphy's reorganization program for welfare and penal agencies and the complicated budget problem also were undecided.

Adjournment of the regular session was set for today—but the clock may be turned back at midnight to preserve the spirit of the adjournment resolution.

The civil service bill, once passed by the senate came from the house carrying 76 amendments. Among them was a section to protect all present state employees against competitive examinations with outside applicants.

Well, That's What Women Say

"The keys to man's heart are praise and meat," said Mrs. Morgan Chambers, and here's a dissenting opinion, as the lawyers say. Praise doesn't go to the average man's heart. It goes straight to his head, where all his swell thoughts dwell. And as to meat, that depends on the cut. A well-served uppercut hardly ever makes him crave a second helping. Now, our idea of meat is any kind of male or female, as long as it is classified want-ad that fetches as neat a result as did this one from The Post-Crescent.

Regular Term Of Legislature To End July 2

Coalition Forces Action on Senate Resolution for Adjournment

BREAK PARTY LINES

Governor LaFollette to Call Special Session in Near Future

Madison—(U)—The regular session of the 1937 legislature will end at noon July 2, one week from today.

An unyielding coalition of Progressives, Democrats and Republicans jammed the senate's resolution for sine die adjournment through the assembly this morning, paving the way for a special session which Governor LaFollette intends to call in the near future.

Although the move to end the regular session had the backing of the governor's office, many Progressives deserted party lines and joined with a small group of Democrats and Republicans to block adoption of the resolution.

Three Crushed and Burned to Death as Tree Falls on Car

Eureka, Calif.—(U)—Three people were crushed and burned to death when a huge redwood tree toppled onto their automobile 55 miles south of Eureka last night.

Coroner W. Lloyd Wallace said today he would hold an inquest. The three victims, burned beyond recognition, were tentatively identified as Judge Irving Baxter, 74, Los Angeles, former probate judge at Omaha, Neb.; his nephew, Clinton Baxter, former president of the Los Angeles Board of Health Commissioners, and his nephew's wife.

The huge tree crushed the automobile to the highway.

Its trapped occupants, it still alive, were unable to escape the flames which consumed the wreckage.

2 Deaths are Attributed to Excessive Heat

Temperature Climbs to 95 Degrees in Appleton

PAIR PROSTRATED

Sixteen Workers are Forced from High School Job

Two persons were dead and two others under treatment as a result of the heat wave that Appleton and vicinity experienced yesterday.

Louis Karls, 61, route 2, Appleton, collapsed about 10:20 Thursday night at his cottage next to Terrace Gardens on Highway 125. His death was attributed to natural causes induced by excessive heat after an examination by Dr. G. A. Steele, Winnebago county coroner.

Dr. Steele, Sheriff Paul Neubauer and Undersheriff Harry Krupner were called to the cottage by neighbors.

August Bockhaus, 82, died at 10:30 this morning at his home at 99 W. Ninth street, Clintonville, and his death was blamed to the warm weather. Bockhaus had been ailing about a week.

Born in Sheboygan, he was born Oct. 8, 1854 in Sheboygan county and came to Clintonville as a young man. His marriage to Hannah Parsons took place in Clintonville 55 years ago. After his marriage he farmed for a time near this city and later worked for 20 years at the Four Wheel Drive plant. He retired two years ago.

Surviving besides the widow, are four sons, Herman, Rhineland, William, St. Paul, Minn.; and Charles and Henry, Clintonville; six daughters, Mrs. William Bohr, Milwaukee; Mrs. George Brandt, Athens, Wis.; Mrs. Stanley Denson, Minneapolis; and Mrs. William Nant, Mrs. Arthur Luebeck and Mrs. August Westphal, Clintonville; one brother, Charles Bockhaus, Campbell; one sister, Mrs. Fred Parsons, Sugar Bush; 17 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

The body was taken to the Eberhard Funeral home, where services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon by the Rev. E. W. Marks. Burial will be in Graceland cemetery.

John M. Hart, 40, 1208 S. Law street, was prostrated by the heat about 8 o'clock last night while working at the Riverside Paper mill. Hart was brought to St. Elizabeth hospital where his condition was regarded as good today.

Ben Rogers, 605 S. Park avenue, Neenah, employed on the construction of the new Menasha High school was treated at Theda Clark Memorial hospital, Neenah, for prostration. He was one of more than 20 workmen at the school who had to leave the job about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon because of the intense heat. Several were severely affected and did not return to work this morning.

Sixteen workmen on the new Appleton High school project also were forced to leave the job yesterday afternoon as a result of the intense heat. Although the project did not close down a physician was stationed there most of the afternoon. All but two of the workers who left the job this morning.

Rain Brings Relief

Cooling breezes which followed the rain last night brought welcome relief to the city. The mercury, which was above 90 degrees at noon yesterday, was at the 84 mark at 10 p.m.

Resignations of Revenue Agents Hit at Capital

Doughton Says Transfers To Private Jobs 'Almost a Scandal'

Washington—(U)—Chairman Doughton (D-N. C.) of the congressional tax committee said today resignation of internal revenue agents to handle private tax cases was "almost a scandal."

Commissioner Guy T. Helvering has agreed to give the senate-house investigators a list of employees who have left the internal revenue bureau for that reason.

Senator LaFollette (P-Wis.), calling the turnover of bureau employees "one of the real problems in the struggle of the government to collect its taxes," asked for the list yesterday.

Many employees, he said, remain in the bureau until they are "pretty well equipped" on tax law, procedure and technicalities and then resign to obtain remunerative positions.

The investigation of tax dodging will resume Tuesday. Explanations will be given of individual cases in which the treasury contends taxes have been reduced through personal holding companies. Helvering named nearly 60 persons yesterday, contending they had used that method. He did not charge it was illegal.

These holding companies Representative Cooper, (D-Tenn.) said, probably are the biggest loopholes through which revenue slips away from the government.

The senate sent to the White House last yesterday a bill extending "nuisance" taxes and 3-cent letter postage for two years. The levies cover a variety of articles, such as gasoline, sporting goods, firearms, and automobiles and accessories.

A proposal by Senator LaFollette to assess higher bracket income taxpayers an extra $278,000,000, was adopted at one point in the debate. Administration forces, opposing the amendment, asked for its reconsideration and later rejected it 42 to 20.

Tells of Six-Day Battle for Life

Canadian Parks Warden Spent Three Days Crawling to Phone

Jasper, Alberta—(U)—A veteran national parks warden badly injured in a hospital today while rescuers recounted his story of six days of agony, three of them spent in crawling just 200 yards to telephone for help after his horse trampled him.

The warden, Edward McDonald, had survived the long days and nights in the cold mountain air, without food and with grizzly bears stalking the vicinity. It was believed he had a broken pelvis and serious internal injuries.

McDonald's story, as rescuers told it, was this:

Last week, two grizzlies kept him a prisoner in his cabin for two days after he shot at them. They finally disappeared and he started for Isaac creek after telephoning the national parks headquarters here he would be out of reach by telephone for several days.

McDonald had gone only 200 yards on his horse when the huge bears reappeared and attacked. The horse bolted and trampled the warden. For three days he lay without moving. His dog kept vigil by his side, but McDonald knew he could expect no hope of rescue for some days because he had told headquarters there would be no word from him.

Finally he inched his way to a water supply a few feet away. The water revived him somewhat and he began to crawl toward his cabin. That took another three days.

Stretched out in the cabin, he took hours to drag together enough boxes so that he could lift himself to the height of the telephone.

Rescuers got to him that night, Tuesday.

Milwaukee Concern Announces Pay Boosts

Milwaukee—(U)—R. R. Brown, president of the Milwaukee Gas Light company, said today about 500 employees would receive a $100,000 a year pay increase under terms of a contract signed with the Gas and Byproducts Workers' union, a C. I. O. affiliate.

Brown said the agreement, reached yesterday, recognized the C. I. O. union as sole bargaining agency for all production and maintenance employees.

Contract terms provide a five day week, wage increases of 10 cents an hour, vacations with pay, and overtime pay adjustments.

Britain, France To Close Gap in Spanish Patrol

Chamberlain and Eden Appeal to Nation to 'Keep Cool'

By the Associated Press

Great Britain and France have decided to fill the gap left in the "hands off Spain" sea patrol by the withdrawal of Germany and Italy with their own warships. It was learned tonight.

They did not wait for Anglo-German approval.

This decision came after a tumultuous house of commons debate. Liberal and labor opposition strenuously protested the neutrality plan was a "farce" and should be scrapped.

Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden appealed to the nation to "keep cool." They insisted the non-intervention plan still might succeed.

In Berlin, Chamberlain's commendation of German "moderation" over the Leipzig incident was received gratefully.

Eden declared the outlook for European peace was not hopeless, and that Italy and Germany may stay with the 25 other nations who are pledged to keep out of the Spanish civil war.

Urges Calmness

In Rome, Virginia Gayda, the writer who often acts as Benito Mussolini's mouthpiece, told Italians to "be calm." Gayda predicted nothing "dramatic" would happen "new and intolerable complications ensue."

While Germany was reported insisting that the international non-intervention committee prevent foreign arms and volunteers from reaching Spanish government forces, Eden told the house of commons that soviet Russia, as well as Germany and Italy, had sent "very large" arms shipments into Spain.

At Valencia, seat of the Spanish central government, two Americans who had been retained during an espionage roundup were released, but four others were held for questioning.

Over Billion Fish Planted in State

Conservation Goal Exceeded but Work Still Incomplete

Madison—(U)—Two officials of the state conservation department issued a sworn statement today announcing that their unprecedented goal of planting 1,000,000,000 fish in Wisconsin lakes and streams this season has been exceeded and the work is incomplete.

Director H. W. MacKenzie and B. O. Webster, superintendent of the fisheries division, reported 1,035,291,030 fish had been "planted" up to June 11.

They estimated "many" additional millions will be distributed this year since the report is incomplete with respect to muskellunge, trout, perch and crappies, and does not include the black bass, bluegill and sunfish hatchery production.

The officials were credited particularly by reports showing 20,402,250 muskellunge fry had been distributed and 644,000 young muskies are being held in rearing ponds for fall planting. The completed operation, a fish-planting project in which Wisconsin has prospered will represent a 50 per cent increase over total fish planting for the last five years.

Seek Uniform Laws For Cheese Industry

Madison—(U)—Commissioner Fred Schultheiss of the Wisconsin Department of Agriculture and Markets said today that agricultural officials of seven midwest states sponsored uniform legislation affecting the cheese industry.

Commissioners of Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, North Dakota, Indiana and Illinois unanimously requested the Wisconsin delegation to prepare uniform regulation. Schultheiss said.

The conference will meet again in December to discuss agricultural problems and federal proposals on uniform dairy legislation. The Wisconsin legislature recommended the conference held yesterday.

Stinchfield Sees Democracy Fall As Liberty Dies

Hate Growing as Classes Are Created, Bar Association Chief Says

Green Lake, Wis.—(P)—Frederick H. Stinchfield of Minneapolis, president of the American Bar association, saw democracy crumbling today in a "world from which individual liberties seem to have flown."

Addressing delegates to the Wisconsin Bar association convention last night, Stinchfield called upon college men and women, graduating lawyers in particular, to "furnish the world a leadership based on honor" if they would have civilization survive.

"When I speak of leaders of civilization," he said, "I speak of college men and women. The leaders are always the educated. If occasionally a few uneducated lead, we can know that they are helpless without the assistance of the educated."

Stinchfield said people have been so often deceived by their leaders, it is doubtful whether they any longer trust anyone.

Democracy on Trial
"We see a world from which individual liberties seem to have flown," he added. "Localities and their self-rule no longer flourish. Democracy is on trial, and, if of a prophetic inclination, one may be inclined to say that the verdict seems to be going against democracy."

"We were told 19 years ago that we should make the world safe for democracy. If the world tried, the attempt failed. . . . In our own country we find, in a land where they little existed before, the growth of classes; and as they grow, we see hate grow. Deception increases. No one is trusted. Must we not say that religion, too, which ever one of the innumerable types one prefers, is in the doldrums?"

Ray B. Graves of Wisconsin Rapids, retiring president of the state bar, called for continuance of a fight to bring about a self-governing bar for Wisconsin and criticized attacks on the American judicial system as emanating "from political sources for political purposes."

"No constitutional principle is more certain than that the judiciary should be kept free from political taint or perverting influence from any sort," Graves told the delegates.

"Until the constitution be changed, members of the bar as with one voice should protest any plan not born of a purpose and desire to guarantee the continuance of that principle."

Says Plow Foundation Tool of Agriculture

Dixon, Ill.—(P)—Dean Chris L. Christensen of the Wisconsin college of Agriculture termed the steel plow "the foundation tool of modern agriculture" and credited its development with being a major factor in raising the standard of living.

Dean Christensen was the principal speaker at a celebration in nearby Grand Detour commemorating the hundredth anniversary of the opening of the Grand Detour Plow Works where the first all-steel mold-board plow was produced.

"From the dawn of history until comparatively recent times, the universal struggle of mankind was against the grim specter of hunger," he said. "Nearly the whole population had to labor long hours to produce the bare necessities of life."

"Few could be spared to manufacture comforts and luxuries or to perform the many services which we deem essential today."

Dean Christensen said that when farming became so efficient that a small portion of the population could produce enough food for all, millions of men were made available for work in mines and factories in transportation, trades and the professions.

Negro Attorney Thinks Cult Leader May Come to Aid of Wealthy Disciple

Los Angeles—(P)—Counsel for John W. H. Hunt, wealthy white follower of Father Divine, pointed their defense today toward possible direct intervention by the Harlem Negro cult leader in the Mann case against H. H. Hunt.

Hunt, MacBeth, Hunt's Negro attorney, in announcing that Father Divine might come to his aid, said last night that the cult movement would become active on the west coast.

Hunt, variously termed "John the Revelator" and "Jesus Christ," will testify next Tuesday, MacBeth said, adding:

"And what he's going to say will lift the lid off this court building. It's going to be another earthquake. When Hunt gets through acquitting himself, Father Divine will move in."

Senator Cashman Urges Editorials In Newspapers on Highway Safety

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison—Senator John E. Cashman, Denmark, author of the controversial driver's license law now pending in the legislature, Wednesday advised Wisconsin editors to devote their editorial page comments to the highway safety problem instead of carrying on old political quarrels which have no significance.

Cashman referred specifically to William T. Evjue, Madison, editor of the Progressive Capital Times, and took the occasion to denounce members of the assembly "who have the Progressive mantle thrown over their shoulders" who are delaying the passage of his driver's license bill.

Highway deaths in the state have jumped 47 per cent this year, while editors like Evjue "waste their space and ink on political issues which died two years ago," said Cashman.

"The blood of innocent children drips from the hands of editors of these papers and the 'experienced'

Announce Program For State Meet of Young Democrats

Banquet, Dance Will climax Annual Convention Saturday at Portage

Portage—A huge banquet and dance will climax the state convention of Young Democrats of Wisconsin, to be held in Portage on Saturday, June 26th. Completed plans for the day's program have been released by the committee on arrangements, Convention Chairman Arno J. Miller announced today.

Registration and reception of the delegates will begin at 8 a. m. at the Portage hotel, the early hour being necessary by the unusually large number of delegates expected. The convention proper will be held starting at 10 a. m. at the Portage armory, with Dr. M. L. Richdorf, Sheboygan, presiding.

Business of the state organization will occupy the morning session with election of officers, committee appointments, and other routine work. Speeches by United States Senator F. Ryan Duffy and former governor Al Schmiedemann of Wisconsin will feature the afternoon session.

The Rauff hotel will be the scene of the banquet at 6:30 at which over 500 are expected to be served. Interesting entertainment and excellent speeches have been arranged. A well known orchestra has been engaged to play for the dance, which will draw a crowd of an estimated thousand people.

Assemblyman Earl D. Hall, (P), Tunnel City, chairman of the lower house highway committee who opposes Cashman's draft of the license law, Cashman termed a "toil." He cannot escape the guilt of these highway deaths. Children are being killed in the morning of their lives."

"Let Wisconsin editors tell the people about this slaughter and the assembly's delay of my bill for more than three months," he finished.

In a public statement earlier yesterday, Cashman declared that the prosecution begun against oleomargarine wholesale distributors by the department of agriculture and markets "would never have been started without the senate investigation of the oleo margarine problem." Cashman was chairman of the senate committee which recently quizzed the department on sales of oleo margarine in Wisconsin contrary to the Cashman oleo law.

Opposed Efforts
Cashman also recalled that two former members in the senate, Frank Panzer of Oakfield and Earl Leverich of Sparta, both Progressives, had opposed his effort to investigate the department.

"The chief success of that questioning," Cashman said, "was the promise that a case would be started."

Prosecution will be begun in the circuit court of Outagamie county against an Appleton wholesaler who is alleged to be distributing butter substitutes without the $500 license as provided by law. Action was begun by District Attorney R. P. Dohr of Outagamie county with the assistance of the state department of agriculture, which is charged with the enforcement of the tax law.

178 Benefit Claims Made In Wisconsin on June 1

Post-Crescent Washington Bureau
Washington—Wisconsin ranks ninth highest in the country in the number of lump-sum and death payment claims filed with the Bureau of Federal Old Age benefits on the first of June.

According to a report from the Social Security board, 178 claims were filed in Wisconsin for lump-sum payments and payments to estates of workers.

Out of the 5,390 such claims made in the entire country as of June 1, only 43 claims have been disallowed for payment. The assistance given claimants by local representatives of the Social Security Board in filling out the claims forms is largely responsible for this small number of rejections, the report says.

"Nor does this procedure involve unnecessary delays in the payment of claims," the board states. "The average length of time for payment of lump-sum benefits to eligible employees at age 65, after the receipt of the claim, is approximately three weeks. However, payments to estates of eligible wage earners take about a week longer."

Funeral Expenses
The board points out that in the case of a death claim, state laws relating to priorities and exemptions, if funeral and last illness expenses have not been paid, must also be considered.

"Until January 1, 1924, the only claims that are payable are those payments," the board said, "amounting to three and one-half per cent of total wages received from covered employment. After that date, the major program of monthly payments to qualified workers in commerce and industry will begin."

In a monthly sum-up of all public assistance in the Badger state, including general relief, wages under the Works Program and public assistance under the social security act, during April, it is reported that one per cent more persons of sixty-five or over received old age benefits than in March.

35,815 Claims
The amount of payments also increased over March 14 per cent. Out of every 1,000 persons in Wisconsin sixty-five or over, 168 received benefits in April. This represents a total of 35,815 who made claims for payments amounting to $690,477.

Out of every 1,000 children under 16 years of age, 24 were given aid in the Badger state during April, a total of 20,809 children in 9,081 families.

Receive Copy of New Painters' License Law

A copy of the new painters' license law has been received at the office of John E. Hantschel, Outagamie county clerk, from the Wisconsin Industrial commission. Included in the law is provision for licensing of painters, renewal of licenses, vouching for applicants for licenses, false statements under oath, reports of violations, and regulations for the master painter, journeyman painter and journeyman painter exceptions.

Safety Keynote At V. F. W. Confab

Veterans Vote Cooperation With State and National Red Cross

Wausau—(P)—Safety of motorists was the keynote of a business meeting of the V. F. W. at their annual encampment this morning.

The veterans' group adopted resolutions calling for cooperation with the state and national Red Cross toward the prevention of mishaps and the care of the injured, and to post warning safety signs at entrances to cities of the state having V. F. W. posts.

Colonel Charles M. Pearsall, Milwaukee, head of state veterans' administration, greeted the delegates. He also announced that veterans need not be on relief rolls to join with CCC camps. Honorable discharge papers are all that are needed, he said. So far, he said, only 44 applications have been made for the July enrollment, while 160 men will be needed.

Meanwhile, hundreds of visitors were pouring into the city for the mammoth parade tomorrow afternoon and the air show on Sunday. National officers expected tomorrow include Bernard Kearney, Kansas City, Mo., national commander-in-chief; James G. Van Zandt, Altoona, Pa., past national commander; and Mrs. Nellie Dawson, Indianapolis, Ind., of the national legislative council. State officials expected include Adjutant General Ralph M. Immell, Orlando, La., attorney general, and Theodore Dammann, secretary of state.

Health Board to Permit Reopening Green Bay Beach

Was Closed Since 1931 Because of Polluted Water

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Reopening of Bay beach, closed since 1931 because of the polluted condition of lower Green Bay and Fox River waters, for the summer bathing season was authorized by the state board of health Thursday.

The state board, after several months of study of the waters of Green Bay, Thursday afternoon announced a recommendation to Green Bay city officials that Bay beach be reopened for the present season under the provision that local supervision over sanitary conditions be maintained through the summer, and with the understanding that the beach will be closed whenever any emergency or unusual condition develop making such action necessary for the health and welfare of the bathers.

Results of the board of health's survey of the Bay beach problem were sent to Mayor John S. Farrell of Green Bay, and Senator Michael F. Kresky of Green Bay who has been active in efforts to reopen the beach on behalf of the Green Bay Athletic club which has obtained a concession for the summer season there.

Board's Announcement
"From the results of the sanitary surveys recently conducted in the south end of Green Bay and especially in the vicinity of Bay beach, it is concluded:

That there has been a material improvement in the quality of the water, such improvement being considered to be due to the completion and placing in service of intercepting sewers along the Fox River in the Green Bay Metropolitan Sewerage district and additional treatment facilities for the sewage.

That the Commission is now chlorinating the sewage plant effluent for the purpose of disinfection prior to discharge into the Bay.

That the quality of the water at Bay beach as indicated by recent tests is now reasonably satisfactory for recreational bathing purposes.

Recent Tests
Most recent tests of the Green Bay waters at the beach were made June 14 by the district engineer, Frank McKee, and the Green Bay Sewerage Superintendent George Martin. Samples were analyzed by the state laboratory of hygiene at Green Bay, and on the results L. F. Warrick, state board of health sanitary engineer said yesterday:

"The greatest danger to bathing is the discharge of raw domestic sewage in the near vicinity of a beach. This has been corrected at Bay beach through the developments in the Green Bay Metropolitan district. While sewage pollution up the Fox River has not yet been completely taken care of under the present clean-up program, this is rapidly being done."

"Further improvement in the bacterial quality of the waters of the Bay should occur, particularly when the sewage treatment plant being constructed at De Pere is completed and intercepting facilities are available for sewage originating in the town of Allouez and Ashwaubenon. Plans for taking care of these problems have been developed and it is expected that the work will be carried to early completion."

Flashes of Life

By the Associated Press
Kansas City—(P)—"Where's the phone?" a customer asked David McIntosh, night club proprietor. It was pointed out.

"Where's the phone?" McIntosh asked police later.

"The instrument, pay box and all, had disappeared with the customer."

Business Prospect

St. Paul—Two good Scandinavian men struck a serious blow at the good old Scandinavian custom of afternoon coffee, in the heart of the Scandinavian belt, too.

Ludwig A. Johnson, Minnesota state capital custodian, issued orders, with the sanction of Governor Elmer A. Benson, terminating coffee-brewing in capitol offices.

The order wasn't aimed at the custom. Its object was economy. Johnson said the more than 30 electric coffee makers in use in the capitol burned too much electricity.

Bubbler to be Placed On Roosevelt Grounds

A water bubbler will be placed at the board of education, according to a communication to the common council filed by the board with City Clerk Becker. Placing of a bubbler on the grounds was recommended recently by the traffic committee.

GETS HAIRCUT

Lester Brockelhurst, "crime tourist" who was wanted in four states, was prepared for his murder trial at Lonoke, Ark., by the jail barber who gave him a final haircut. Brockelhurst, Rockford, Ill., youth who formerly was a Sunday School teacher, will go to trial with his girl friend, Bernice Felton, also of Rockford.

Prosecution Asks Death Penalty for Girl in Slaying

Trial Follows Conviction Of Lester Brockelhurst in Arkansas

Lonoke, Ark.—(P)—The state called Bernice Felton to trial on a murder charge today, demanding that the 18-year-old girl be condemned to death, just as her sweetheart was in a swift trial yesterday.

The girl from Rockford, Ill., was one of few connected with the case who betrayed no emotion when a jury decreed that 23-year-old Lester Brockelhurst must die for killing Victor Gates of Little Rock during a "crime tour" with Bernice last spring.

And early today the slim young woman remained outwardly calm, even in the face of Prosecutor George Hart's declaration, "I shall leave no stone unturned in demanding the same penalty for her."

The Felton girl's attorney entered a plea of innocent for her and said he would make a plea of insanity, as did counsel for Brockelhurst, a former Sunday school teacher from Galesburg, Ill.

The Brockelhurst jury deliberated only 22 minutes before giving him the extreme penalty.

Climaxing an eight-hour trial, the execution verdict swept the crowded courtroom into an emotional uproar set off by the collapse of the convicted man.

Circuit Judge W. J. Waggoner said he would pass sentence on Brockelhurst and set his execution date after completion of the girl's trial. Defense counsel announced an appeal would be carried to the state supreme court.

P. E. O. Launches State Convention in Milwaukee

Milwaukee—(P)—The state convention of the P. E. O., a women's organization which, it is claimed, has never divulged the meaning of its three initials, started yesterday at Downer college.

Mrs. Mattie A. Newell, supreme chapter president of the P. E. O., sisterhood from St. Louis, Mo., believes firmly that a woman can keep a secret.

"I have yet to hear of a husband who has been told the meaning of our letters or symbols," she declared. "You see a woman can keep a secret."

The P. E. O. was founded by seven college girls at Iowa Wesleyan college, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, in 1893.

Education is the "pet project" of the organization, Mrs. Newell explained. The P. E. O. owns and directs the Cottley Junior college, Nevada, Mo.

Playground Program Is Outlined at Kimberly

Kimberly—Miss Dorothy Fiedler, Kaukauna, is in charge of the playground which opened Thursday morning in the park, and Hal Schroeder, Appleton, will take charge of the sports each day for boys.

The program outlined by Miss Fiedler is scheduled for each afternoon except Saturday when the playground work will be conducted in the morning.

From 1 to 2 o'clock each afternoon will be story hour and games; from 2 to 3, organized games. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 3:15 to 4:30 construction work for anyone wishing to join. This work will be arranged according to age. On each afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 intermission will be held.

From 5:30 to 6:30 there will be organized games for the older girls. From 6:30 to 7:30 games and relays, and from 7:30 to 8 o'clock, games. On Saturday morning from 8 to 9 o'clock there will be story hour and games; 9 to 10 o'clock and 10 to 11 o'clock organized games, and from 11 to 12 o'clock construction period.

The program outlined by Mr. Schroeder includes hard and softball for men, junior boys and mid-gets, and will be run in the following schedule:

At 1:30 in the afternoon on Monday and Fridays a hardball game is scheduled for junior boys from 14 to 18 years of age. On Tuesday and Thursday afternoons at the same time the juniors will play softball.

On Mondays and Fridays at 4 o'clock, the mid-gets, 13 years and under, will meet in a softball game. Softball games for men are scheduled from 6 to 8 o'clock Monday and Wednesday evenings.

Mr. Schroeder will also take charge of the American Legion team which will play on Wednesday afternoon and next week will meet an Appleton team here. Suits will be issued to the junior team Saturday morning.

The boys' hour at the swimming pool will be changed from 2 to 3 o'clock to 1 to 2 o'clock each afternoon so that they may take part in the ball games.

Dorothy Valentine has been taken to a Madison hospital by her parents this week to complete treatments.

Badger Bankers to Leave Tomorrow on Three-Day Cruise

Milwaukee—(P)—Wisconsin bankers will leave tomorrow aboard the Seabreeze on a three-day Great Lakes convention cruise. More than 300 members of the Wisconsin Bankers' association are expected to make the trip.

Convention sessions will be held as the boat cruises on Lake Michigan, Lake Huron and Georgian bay. Stops will be made at Mackinac island and Sault Ste. Marie.

Among the scheduled speakers are: Tom K. Smith, president of the American Bankers' association; Ralph W. Manuel, president of Marquette National Bank, Minneapolis; H. C. Weaver, director of customer research, General Motors Corp., Detroit; and Frederick S. Hansen, president Thomas Gibson, Inc., New York.

Samuel N. Pickard of Neenah is convention chairman.

Unions Must be Responsible for Their Contracts

Right to Work Has to be Safeguarded. Lawrence Declares

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington—President Roosevelt and Secretary Perkins have before them in concrete form the question of how to make the C. I. O. unions responsible for the contracts they sign. Behind the scenes an interesting drama of conflict between the administration and C. I. O. is developing.

Just a few days ago it was announced from Detroit that Homer Martin, head of the C. I. O.'s automobile union, had begun negotiations with the General Motors company for modification of the existing contract when it expires in a few weeks. These parleys are now going on. It is hardly to be presumed that the General Motors company, after the experience they have had with violated contracts, will agree to an extension of the present contract without demanding some safeguards of a binding character.

Since President Roosevelt himself intervened in the General Motors strike and Secretary Perkins insisted to the motor company executives that the John Lewis unions would live up to their contracts, the question now arises as to what the administration has to say about the record of unauthorized strikes which has been built up over the last four months by the C. I. O. unions.

280 Separate Stoppages Although the contract specifically provided that there was not to be any strikes or interruptions and all grievances were to be taken up through the committees specially constituted for the purpose, the General Motors plants have suffered 280 separate stoppages. Under such circumstances, it would not be surprising if the General Motors officials decided that a contract with the C. I. O. isn't worth the paper it is written on and that henceforth their position must become identical with that of the independent steel companies which are refusing to sign any contracts with C. I. O.

Should such a situation develop it would be most regrettable, because it would indicate that after all the millions of dollars of economic loss in Michigan due to the "sit-down" strikes, and the final consummation of an agreement through the intervention of the president of the United States, such a thing as labor discipline is so lacking as to render the recent efforts of Mr. Roosevelt as well as his secretary of labor absolutely futile.

The relationship between the negotiations going on between General Motors officials and Homer Martin, on the one hand, and the strikes in Ohio and Pennsylvania between the C. I. O. unions and the steel companies, on the other, becomes closer and closer as the experience in the motor industry is revealed. It challenges not only the good faith of the C. I. O. leaders but the influence of the Roosevelt administration with its own allies, the C. I. O. unions.

Silent on Developments Just what is happening in the Michigan negotiations is not known to the public because both motor executives and labor leaders have declined to tell what is happening in the exchanges between them. It is known, of course, that Homer Martin is trying to discover the causes of the unauthorized strikes and that he says he is endeavoring to develop discipline, but, on the other hand, the very point that the steel companies make is coming to the fore, namely that apparently nobody, not even John Lewis, can give assurances that the C. I. O. unions will live up to their contracts when signed.

It is, of course, a practical question of labor evolution. The administration has been disposed to argue that labor unions are in the early stages of an unusual expansion and that growing pains are inevitably the cause of local breakdowns. But unfortunately this does not answer the question of how in the meantime losses are to be prevented when irresponsible leaders permit outbreaks and cannot control sporadic strikes. If the labor unions were incorporated, or if they were compelled to post bonds, or if congress passed a statute forbidding strikes when contracts providing mediation machinery to settle grievances had been agreed to by both sides, something might be done to bring about stability in the relations of employers and employees even where C. I. O. unionism exists.

AL SMITH HAS DINNER IN PARIS ON HIS TOUR
MONSIEUR SMITH. Al Smith was doing Paris on his first European tour. Here he is at the American Club chatting with Theodore Rousseau, the president. It was not likely the well-catered food was responsible for the disappearance of his usual personable smile. Perhaps it was homesickness.

The eyes of the country from now on will be focused on Michigan as much as on Ohio and Pennsylvania. For the General Motors company has before it now a request for a new contract or an extension of the present agreement. Will the General Motors company sign another contract? Few observers think the General Motors company would be so poorly advised as to continue an arrangement wherein no sense of responsibility is manifested by one of the parties to the agreement.

Assurances Necessary What then can the C. I. O. unions do? They can "investigate," but will the investigation probably there will be no contact made unless some safeguards or assurances can be invoked. The government of the United States and the government of Michigan could help in making contracts binding. President Roosevelt is to some extent "on the spot" in the controversy, because he and his secretary of labor used their influence in persuading the motor executives to sign contracts with the C. I. O.

The responsibility for the next move would therefore seem to be both on the president and on John Lewis and unless the next move contains some formula which can make the C. I. O. unions legally responsible for damages they cause by interruptions to plants while a contract is in progress, the public may look for more instead of less labor trouble in the motor industry. This opinion is becoming restive throughout the country, as no doubt Governor Earle of Pennsylvania discovered after his use of troops to shut the Johnstown plant of the Bethlehem Steel company. Every day the issue becomes clearer: Shall citizens be protected in their right to work? Shall collective bargaining carry with it a commensurate sense of collective responsibility? If collective bargaining is to be completed by legal means, so also does a legal means

Dr. Townsend Offers His Name for Five Millions

Oakland, Calif.—(AP)—Dr. Francis E. Townsend is out to borrow $5,000,000 on his "personal signature" to carry on the fight for his $200-a-month old age pension plan. The 70-year-old Long Beach physician will stump the entire country with personal appeals for funds. Starting the campaign in his home town, he addressed a dozen cheering audiences on the Pacific coast, collected considerable money, and headed east.

SEC Sounds Discard To everyone lending him $10 or more, the doctor gives his personal promissory note, payable in two years and bearing 4 per cent interest. "My personal assets," he disarmingly admits, "aside from the Townsend National Weekly, which of imposing collective responsibility upon labor unions become an inevitable counterpart of any formula for labor peace in America." (Copyright, 1937)

A discordant note has been injected by the Securities and Exchange commission which has notified Townsend that the scheme violates the law. While he tries to iron out this legal aspect of his plan the solicitation goes on. Principal object of the big war chest is to get his general welfare act out of the house ways and means committee and passed. To push this he intends to spend much of the five million on nation-wide radio appeals and the rest on intensive organization work in every congressional district. Included in the strategy is a national convention in Washington during the present session of congress to put the heat on the lawmakers. Despite his years, Dr. Townsend made two speeches in one evening here, shook hundreds of hands, signed hundreds of notes, then

Recreation Chief Named at Seymour

George Hammen to Direct Activities Starting July 1

Seymour—According to word received from Hubert Plette, Outagamie county WPA director, Seymour will have a full-time recreation director, starting July 1. Joseph Boydson has been transferred from Little Chute to Seymour. He is well known here, as he is a member of the Seymour baseball team. Playground activities for the children will begin on Tuesday morning, July 6, at the fair grounds.

The granting of a full-time recreation director to Seymour is the result of efforts made by the boys' and girls' work committee of the local Kiwanis Club. The Friendship Ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. Art Boyden Friday afternoon. Hostesses were Mrs. Ike Krause, Mrs. Ellis Dopkins and Mrs. Art Boyden. Miss Janet Bates of Milwaukee spent two days at her home in Seymour this week. Mrs. D. V. Phare and daughter Kathryn, have returned to their home at Great Falls, Mont., after visiting with relatives here. Members of the Kiwanis club and their ladies were entertained at Hotel Falck Tuesday evening. Captain Dancy, Long Beach, Calif., spoke on "American Citizenship."

Excavators Find Money In Black Walnut Stumps

El Paso, Tex.—(AP)—Excavating "buried treasure" in the form of huge black walnut stumps, hundreds of years old, has proved a plunged into a mass of organization detail.

"My health is better today than it has been in years," he says. "I have no apprehensions. I hope to live many years yet, and I certainly intend to accomplish this great task before I pass on."

Seeing to it "personally" Following much internal dissension, Townsends now pledge personal allegiance to the plan's founder. "Our affairs admittedly had drifted into bad management," said Dr. Townsend. "Since January 1 I have paid $30,000 on bills I didn't know we owed. But control is narrowed down now and things are harmonious. I will personally supervise the spending of every dollar of this $5,000,000 fund."

profitable sideline for Roberto Revilla, mining man of Chihuahua, Villa, Mex. The stumps, weighing an average of 3,500 pounds each, are found buried deep in the dry sandy soil of Chihuahua and Durango. At first they resemble huge, rough boulders. Cut and polished, they reveal a beautifully intricate grain

TWO CASES OF VANITY

Mr. Lewis has no complaint to make about Republic except that it won't sign up with him.

He argues that a man should be willing to put in writing an existing oral agreement. The President supports him. On the face of it the claim of neither side looks altogether genuine.

If a written contract is a mere formality, a thing that really amounts to nothing, how can one be in a better position demanding it than the other in refusing it.

Brushing aside the camouflage purposely presented to give the public something to think about the contest involves considerable vanity between Lewis and Girdler. Lewis says that Girdler will sign. Girdler says he will not.

This is a fine thing to fight about. It is worth at least a thousand human lives that should be sacrificed to see who is going to have his way even if having it doesn't amount to anything.

Another famous vanity case has just ended in New Jersey.

The two Parkers were convicted of a conspiracy to thwart the execution of Hauptmann.

They were the ones who brought forth a fellow by the name of Wendel after they garroled him into a false confession that wouldn't have deceived a ten-year-old.

Back of it all was a contest by two leading detectives for supremacy. The senior Parker had done very well in the detection of crime. With a subtle sagacity and a keen understanding of humans he had placed upon the prosecutor's table the solution to some very confusing crimes.

But there were other detectives, younger men, and nonetheless able. When Parker's services went undemanded in the most celebrated case of the century his vanity was wounded and vengeance began to simmer in his soul.

Opposition detectives had proven the guilt of Hauptmann beyond the opportunity for reasonable controversy, and had done so with a class of testimony and a quality of evidence of very superior value.

What would be finer for the snubbed Parker than to tip over the pot of beans just before delivery to the hungry crew? What more devastating than to expose the stark stupidity of those employed by the government in staying their hand just on the stroke of doom and delivering into their keeping the confessed offender? It was a fine plot for the old style "drammer" where the nigger heaven was full of tobacco chewing youngsters at 10 cents a seat, but the truth itself was so evident that the Parkers didn't fool anyone.

Thus we must face in all our business, government and the affairs of our everyday life the struggle of personalities for ascendancy.

In the labor world Mr. Lewis became embittered because he could not control the American Federation of Labor. His proposals were voted down more than once.

So he carried out a plan. The fires that burn and mangle him inward are largely the same character as those that get the Parkers into trouble.

Mr. Lewis aimed for and secured control of a President. The Parkers didn't aim at a light. They were satisfied with a Governor. Now they realize their error.

It will take a President to get them out of their present muddle.

THE SCHOOL JANITOR

Nicholson high school janitors are attending school this week at one of the State's Normal colleges. Only recently, Michigan School Janitor Adam Denhardt, 64, received his Master of Arts degree during Commencement exercises of Detroit University of Detroit. He is the first public school janitor in the United States, it is believed, to earn a graduate degree.

Lectures during the short course for janitors include some of the State's ablest educators. Other states are said to be following Michigan's lead in recognizing the school janitor as an important person in any educational setup.

As, indeed, he is.

The public school janitor may be an unsung hero but he is a hero, all the same, to many an aging man who remembers his boyhood.

The janitor, in young eyes, represents the normal in an unnatural world of bookishness, teachers and discipline. The janitor, with his brushes and brooms, suggests a friendlier world, the home where brushes and brooms are commonplace.

It is the janitor who knows first when boys are up to tricks by way of showing their spirits are not yet conquered—and who cleans up the mess.

It is the janitor who could tell tales in school—and seldom does.

It is the janitor who goes about his duties, day after day, with his brushes and mops removing the evidences of heedlessness.

The public school janitor is an important person, even without an M.A. degree. It would be difficult to operate a school system without him.

More power to him and to his strong right arm!

"IN PROPORTION TO ABILITY"

A thousand men may be crowded around a platform in late October of any of those even numbered years in which we choose our rulers, state and national.

The orator is expounding his doctrine. He receives particularly close attention when he declares that he is supporting the doctrine that men must pay toward liquidating the expenses of government "in proportion to their ability to pay."

The proposition is so obviously right that no one will gainsay him. He has seemingly made an appeal to his hearers which is extremely effective, and yet is about as big a joke as has been played on the public these last 25 years.

Of course, men ought to pay in proportion to their ability to pay. How else would we have men pay anyway? And yet government does not trend that way, laws are not made that way, the principle is tossed in a washbowl both at Madison and Washington for that more important thing known as "demands of the hour."

The only time we see any evidence of putting this principle into operation is when lawmakers spend more money than they should and therefore must raise more funds. Yet farmers found that when they weren't making any money, and under the principle were not expected to advance funds for their government, they were not only assessed and taxed but their property was sold out from under them. Nor were they the only ones to discover the stern attitude of reality as opposed to the platform orator, his smiling phrases, and his unsmiling performance.

The other day the Milwaukee Road published a statement that ought to be interesting in this regard. It said that for over 20 years its stockholders have not received one cent in dividends. Yet that road has paid the state of Wisconsin in the same period over 30 million dollars in taxes. What a blessing in such an instance had the platform speakers kept their words.

Would it be possible to repeal all our forms of taxation in Wisconsin and substitute that beautiful principle, that lovely declaration, "in proportion to their ability to pay."

Of course, it would be possible. And of course if the principle is worth anything it should be done. But of course it won't be done.

To do it would mean economical government, an end of strident minorities offering their support for governmental advantages, and it would mean all this because it could not be done without higher income taxes assessed on a broader base. That is to say, it could not be done without Mr. John Citizen paying taxes more directly, and that would be bad for political machines and these facts of politics which we all know, and condemn, and turn our backs upon.

The more direct you can keep taxes the better government you will have. Better government means less wastage, more honor, a higher rate of dependability, fewer wild promises on the platform and a minimum of slippery transactions back of the scenes.

Government today turns largely upon two great propositions that work together like fingers may be deviated. Those in power must first single out a few very wealthy men and put them on a dais before the multitude while their pockets are tapped and the multitude is told, "We are doing this because of the principle that men must pay according to their ability to pay." But while this charming act is going on the agents of that same government will be passing out among the multitude, gently and kindly, almost sympathetically, picking the purses out of their pockets in what is known as indirect taxes.

This clever performance cannot be successfully enacted without the rich and the multitude. If you do not have the rich to put "on the spot" you cannot distract the attention of the multitude. And if you cannot distract the attention of the multitude they may be feeling in their own pockets when the pickers come around.

And that would spell disaster.

Studies at Kansas State College indicate each acre of good orchard represents an investment of $200 or more, excluding land cost, by the time the orchard bears properly.

John L. Kasper of Toledo, O., whose hobby is flower gardening, has 160 varieties of blooming in his yard.

Installment sales in the United States increased to $4,500,000,000 last year as compared with $3,600,000,000 in 1935.

THE C.I.O. made a contract with General Motors that was supposed to settle everything and put an end to unrest for a considerable period. The C.I.O. lads promptly went right back to striking in G.M. plants and have been at it spasmodically ever since an Ohio judge enjoins C.I.O. from other than peaceful picketing, and the C.I.O. thumbs its nose at law and order and calls a general strike. The C.I.O. overrules law and order and the wish of the majority in case after case and continues to get away with it. "Sweet land of liberty" . . . or is this the more abundant life? . . . or the splurge of hot weather? . . .

TO JIMMY

I met you quite by accident, Jimmy, on a poster outside a tavern, two years ago. It was a little sign, barely large enough to attract attention. And it said just this: Baer versus Braddock. And I walked away—wondering who you were.

The papers told me all about you, Jimmy, who you were, and where you came from. And when I knew you well, I felt sorry for you, meeting a killer like Baer. And then—that night—can you ever forget it, Jimmy? A new champion—James J. Braddock. There would be no more shovels for you, I said to myself. And I fell asleep that night, thinking of the new champ.

You've come a long ways, Jimmy, up the road and down again. On the peaks—and in the valleys. You were idle and the two long years took their toll. And then—the match with Louis. But your fingers didn't tremble when you signed your name. You were an Irishman—and you loved a good fight.

I guess the crown was a little too heavy for your weary hands, Jimmy, thirty two years had seen to that. And younger hands take it up—to carry it high—in the arms of youth. But your hands seem empty, Jimmy, they were used to holding a load, and a very precious load at that. And now you'll walk along empty halls and corridors. But your family is there, Jimmy, with open arms. But the halls will be empty—that is the price of defeat.

You taught me much, Jimmy, courage and patience. You taught me to take it on the chin, and keep right on fighting. You taught me to buckle down and stick to a goal, until I get there. You taught me guts, Jimmy.

The time is short, I must hurry to catch up to the new champ and follow him. He goes down busy streets and cheering admirers. I don't want to go down dark gloomy streets. I want the bright lights. I must rush now, the hours are few.

So thanks, Jimmy, and—goodbye.

BIGGER THAN JOHN LEWIS?

Our splendid president is occasionally referred to in this column as Mr. Big. Jonah is right. FDR is big. So big, in fact, that we frogs in our little puddles are incapable of realizing the extent of his greatness. And not until kindly Time has disseminated the miasma of the political hysteria, rabidness and misunderstanding of the present day, will we be able to realize just how big the man really is.

—MRS. G. W.

To Mrs. G. W., all freedom to think and say as she pleases. But women in Pennsylvania whose families are being forced on relief because John Lewis will not let them work may not agree with Mrs. G. W. Your correspondent thinks that FDR is losing his chance for true business by playing politics. I refer her to David Lawrence and Boake Carter.

A Verse for Today

By Anne Campbell

"MOTHER, YOU HAVE ME!"
When tragedy she vainly tried to hide
Pulled down the banner of her bravery,
Her sympathetic baby at her side
Said: "Mother, you have me!"

"Dear mother, you have me!" . . . Her heart's closed door
Flew open at the sound. . . . Her pain grew less.
A little child had started to restore
Her shattered happiness!

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

Friday, June 24, 1927

A. K. Ellis, for many years in charge of the Wisconsin Traction Light Heat and Power company here, has been elected vice president and general manager of the newly organized Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

It is expected that the resurfacing of E. Collette avenue from Drew to Green Bay streets will be started about the middle of July. Concrete is now being poured on S. Mason street between W. Collette and W. Prospect avenues.

The Appleton Womens club is being remodelled and redecorated this summer. A partition between the kitchen and a butler's pantry has been taken down, and cupboards and other improvements will be added. The rooms will be repapered and painted when the remodeling has been done. Mrs. Frank McGowan is chairman of the house committee which is supervising the work.

Marriage licenses were issued in the office of John E. Hantschel, county clerk, to Robert J. Kolasse and Stella Ehlers, both of Appleton; Wilbert Driessen, Little Chute, and Olive P. Bertram, Appleton.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

No paper in the files that day.

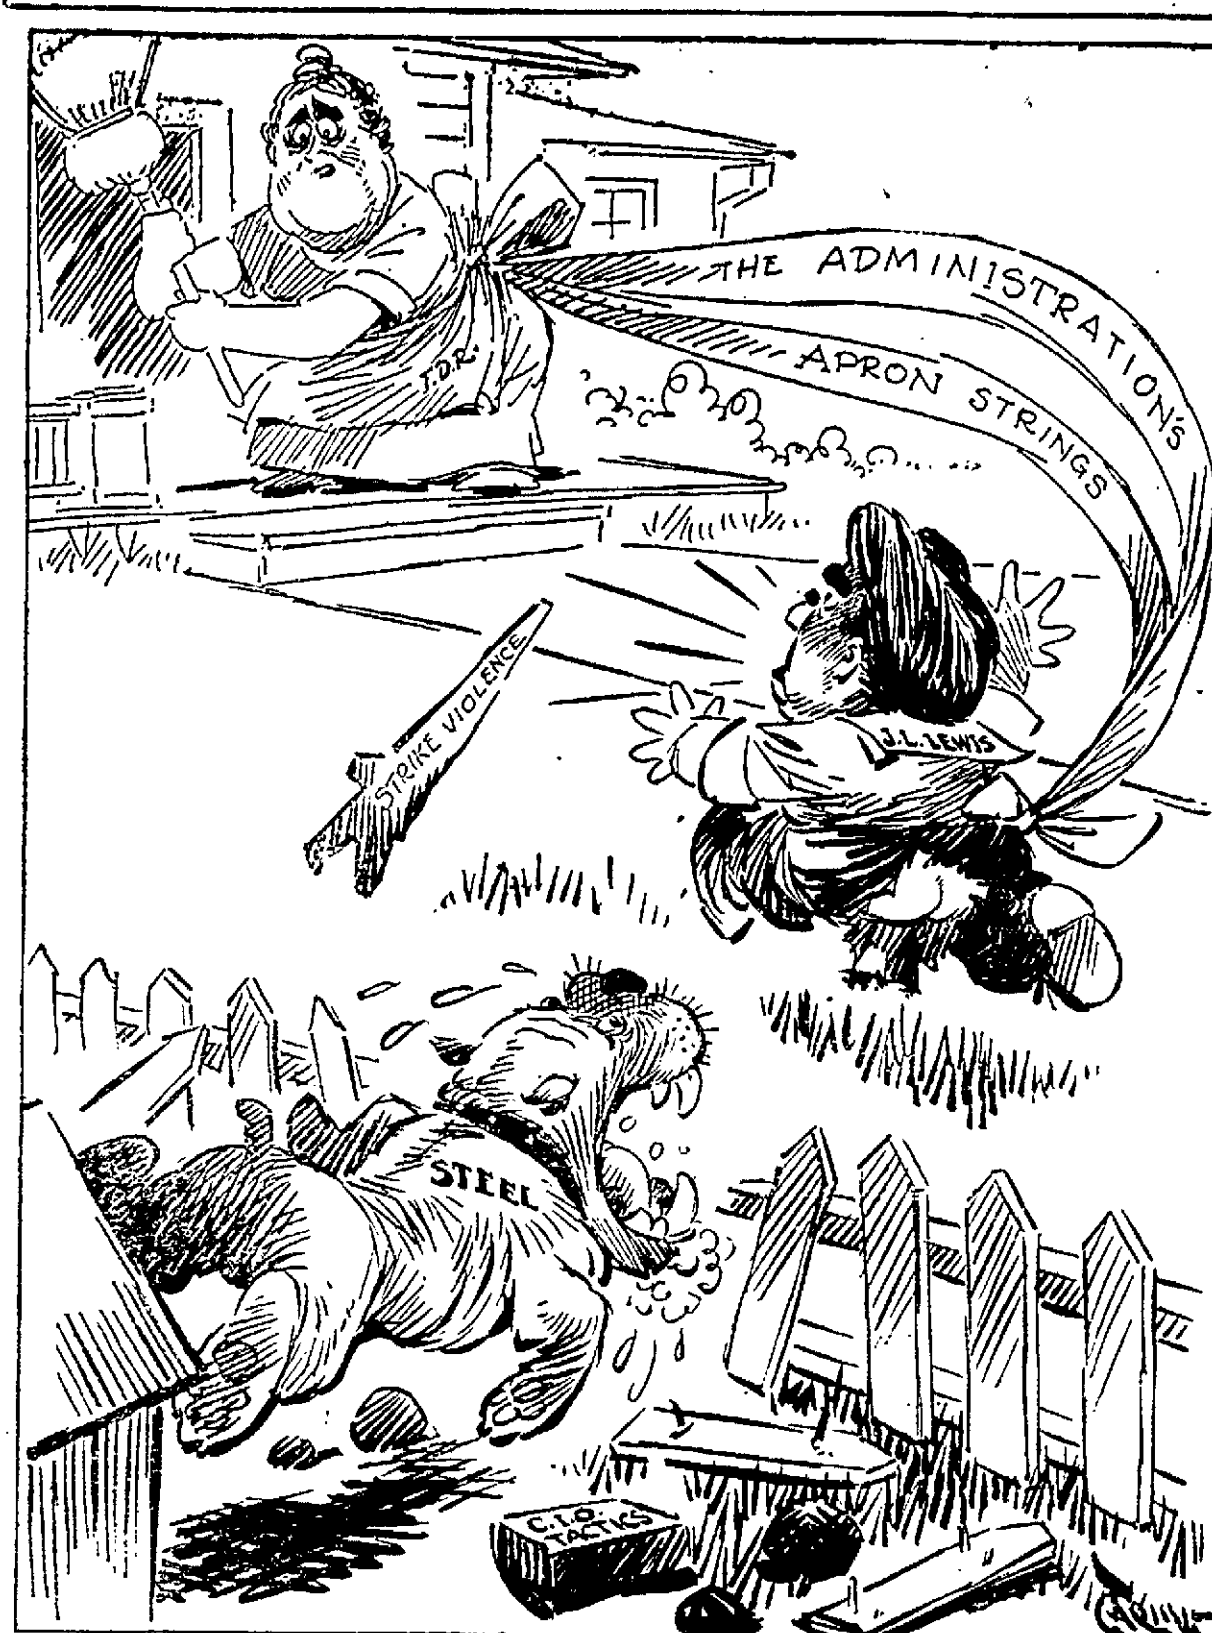

Ducks have increased 15 to 30 per cent in number in the last year, according to Hugh M. Worcester, agent of the biological survey.

The 20,000 inhabitants of Guam owe allegiance to the United States but are not citizens. There is no legal provision whereby they can become citizens.

The "dust bowl," as defined by government agencies, consists of a 90,779,555-acre expanse in Oklahoma, Texas, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico.

A recent survey estimated that 431,000 donors presented between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000 in outright gifts to higher education in 1935.

THE PROBLEM CHILD

Personal Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY M. D.
Noted Physician and Author

NUTRITION AND THE FEET

"A few years ago, in an extensive survey of Los Angeles school children whose flat feet and bad posture did not respond to corrective physical education," reports Edwin F. Patton, M. D., orthopedic surgeon, in California and Western Medicine, Jan. 37, "I very quickly found the reason. Practically all of these children were malnourished, subvital and chronically fatigued. The money spent maintaining an expensive school department could have been applied to much better purpose in giving these children good food, adequate vitamins, rest, sunshine and fresh air. Under such a regimen their arches and backs could not have shown less improvement, and I confidently believe would have shown a great deal more."

What's this? A shortage of sunshine and fresh air in the sunshine and fresh air headquarters of the country? No, it isn't that. The trouble is that northerners and easterners who migrate to the southwest take along all their queer prejudices and delusions concerning air and sunshine and so the young ones suffer from deprivation of the very blessings their parents purported to seek in the golden west.

Dr. Patton says it is a fallacy to think that flat-foot can be corrected by exercises. He observes, with much logic, that exercising the inverted of the foot ten or fifteen minutes a day can have but little, if any, influence on what these muscles will do during the twelve hours, more or less, they must work in weight-bearing. If these muscles are atonic, weak, the orthopedist maintains, it is usually because the entire muscular system is atonic, weak, as a result of one of the general conditions already mentioned—that is, nutritional deficiency, chronic fatigue, anemia.

Weak feet, weak ankles, pronated feet, whether the child or young adult complains of tired or aching feet or "growing pains" or "rheumatism" in legs, knees or hips or back, or whether the functional weakness develops eventually into organic flatfoot or not, probably spells masked, or unrecognized, rickets in most cases. More sunshine on naked skin, or ultraviolet from artificial source if sunshine cannot penetrate the shell of prejudice and ignorance that robs too many of its benefits, or more vitamin D in one form or another to supplement the never adequate supply of this vitamin in the natural food of man, is the best preventive and cure for this defect, in my opinion.

Many paid chiropodists (podiatrists) in various parts of the country appear to share the view of Michael V. Simko, M. C., of Bridgeport, who tells me he believes 50 per cent of pronated, weak-foot cases in children examined by him may be due to vitamin deficiency. He found 20 per cent of the children in upper grades of a school in factory district where slum clearance awaits federal approval had pronated feet, and lack of sunshine, as well as lack of knowledge of the importance of vitamins in the daily diet is obvious in that district.

Your Birthday

"CANCER"

If June 26 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10:45 a. m. to 12:45 p. m. from 2:45 to 4:45 p. m. and from 8:45 to 10:45 p. m. The danger periods are from 8:45 to 10:45 a. m. from 6:45 to 8:45 p. m. and from 10:45 p. m. until midnight.

Avoid keeping people waiting this day, if you do not wish to cause irritation. Uncontrolled tongues will be the days principal troublemakers. Unimportant trifles are apt to start the most acrimonious arguments, so be careful not to complain without ample reason to back your grievance. Personal peculiarities may be quite noticeable this day, and should be tactfully overlooked, if possible. Be food conscious and express appreciation for any culinary efforts made in your behalf, if you would avoid giving offense to anyone trying to please your palate. Married and engaged couples, and those entertaining matrimonial intentions, should avoid going into gruesome details regarding anything unpleasant this day, if they wish to have a cheerful, carefree companion.

If a woman and June 26 is your birthday, you will have many devoted and loyal friends. Any social ambitions you have are likely to be realized. Money may come your way in some very surprising manner. You seem predestined to share many luxuries with someone near and dear to you, possibly your husband. Welcome advice. It might lead you in the right direction where your big opportunity will be. It is important that you cultivate the habit of being cheerful, for only by looking on the sunny side of things will you discover the trail that leads to happiness. Overcome any tendency to speak sharply, or complainingly. Temperamentally you may be best fitted to be a professional entertainer, actress, missionary, broker, private secretary, office manager, teacher or trained nurse.

The child born on June 26, should, during adolescence, display definite signs of mental and physical development. Perhaps through some intellectual or artistic achievement success will be attained by this youngster.

If a man and June 26 is your natal day, by gradual degrees you ought to make the grade that will lead to some worthwhile achievement. As a chemist, scientist, actor, preacher, lecturer, salesman, politician or lawyer money and a fine reputation might be won by you.

Successful People Born on June 26:
George W. Flagg, artist.
Thomas W. Knox, author, traveler and inventor.
John H. Alexander, scientist.
George Bruce, type founder.
Serenio E. Payne, lawyer and congressman.
Richard Dana, jurist and patriot.

Myocarditis
Our son aged nine years is very near-sighted. He is wearing spectacles fitted by a first class oculist, who says there is no other treatment. But a doctor who golfs with my husband says adrenaline drops in the eyes prevent increase in the trouble. Please give us your opinion. (Mrs. E. M.)

Answer—Dropping in each eye a drop or two of 1-1000 solution of adrenalin (otherwise called epinephrin) three times a day for a prolonged period, four or five years, seems to arrest the progress of myopia or increase in nearsightedness in some cases, and is harmless in any case, provided the solution is fresh and not spoiled by long standing.

Is myocarditis curable in a person 22 years old? (G. E. V.)
Answer—Unable to offer opinion without individual data. Young person affected might obtain useful information from booklet "Nutrition and Ate" for copy send ten cents and stamped envelope bearing correct address.

And, unfortunately, there isn't much that can be done about it. The management, as much as they may privately rue it, have adopted a do-nothing attitude.

I have in mind an incident of a recent evening in the Persian Room which, apparently, has been adopted by the debutantes and the pedigreed drone of society as a playground of their own.

A new personality was introduced by the management. Neils Goddelle, and she must have thought it was the Fourth of July, by the confusion, when she attempted to sing. Miss Goddelle is a pretty slip of a girl with bright laughing eyes and dark hair. She has a lovely but fragile voice, and it was like tossing china against a brick wall to sing against the ribald noises which emanated from a group of snobs.

Kay Kyser is a North Carolinian and a successful orchestra leader. Furthermore, he is an amusing story teller—as witness this recital which took place between trains the other evening.

A droopy mule, plodding through the desert, came suddenly upon a trailer parked on the side of the road. Having never seen a trailer (one of those new forms of conveyance), he approached shyly, and inquired: "What manner of thing are you?"

"I," said the trailer proudly, "am a home. People live in me. And what manner of creature are you?"

"You are a home," mused the mule, with a twinkle in his eyes, "while I—I am a horse!"

"Won't you buy some of my bachelor buttons?" Well, anyway, the thing to do now is buy these tiny blue flowers, instead of gardenias if you are a male in New York. They're a dime a cluster and fit nicely into the lapel. . . . Gar-

A Bystander
In Washington

BY PRESTON GROVER

Washington—Senator Borah exhibits signs of getting mad about the Puerto Rican situation.

Even in the midst of strenuous battles on major issues the veteran senator seems always to find a moment of spare time to take a crack at persons he thinks are trampling on the downtrodden. That seems now the case with Puerto Rico.

Military governors are anathema to the senator, whose gods are orderly civil government. The police "crackdown" on the parade of the fire-eating nationalists down Puerto Rico way two months ago has stirred him to bitterness.

The first evidence of his unres was a demand for a report from Governor Blanton Winship. Winship, a former army general, submitted a lengthy document packed with stories of nationalist outbursts. The nationalists have mixed it up with police on so many occasions that the casualty list reads like that of a World war engagement.

Principal crime laid to the nationalists was the assassination of Col. Francis Riggs of Washington, D. C., chief of the insular police, as he was returning home from church.

Pedro Albizu Campos, head of the nationalist party, and a half dozen party officials subsequently were convicted of conspiring to overthrow the government of the United States.

Although overthrowing the U. S. government by an insurrection in Puerto Rico would be quite a task, Albizu and his associates were convicted. Appeals were carried to the U. S. Supreme Court which a day or so back declined to interfere with the conviction. Atlanta penitentiary awaits them all. That leaves the party leaderless.

Speeches Brewin
The civil liberties union of New York conducted an investigation after the latest of the nationalist-policing frays resulted in the death of 19 nationalists and two police, and the wounding of nearly a hundred nationalist and police. The committee followed up by filing a brief in Supreme Court in defense of Albizu, whose conviction preceded the latest clash.

In the brief, the committee asserted Albizu and his associates were being made the goats of a whole series of crimes, including the shooting of Colonel Riggs, without any real evidence to connect them with the actual crimes.

Not so, said Winship. Borah has been gathering data for some time without publicly indicating what he planned to do. But on many previous occasions he has expressed a conviction that army men are not trained to be good civil governors.

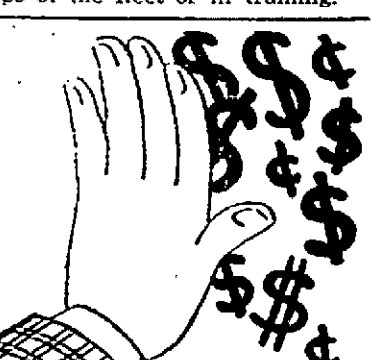

He will be saying things about it in the senate.

denias aren't a quarter anymore. They, too, are only 10 cents, though maybe they are more expensive if you buy them in the wrong place. I refer to those defeated looking persons who hawk them on street corners. Sometimes one is persuaded to turn down a side street, rather than pass them, so pitious is their appeal. For instance, the look in one old man's eyes has haunted me for three days.

P. S. My psychiatrist tells me this is known as "shrinking from life."

FAMILY THEME SONG:
Bluefield, W. Va.—(P)—The refrain "We're in the Navy Now" is more than a song to the Wolf family of Glen Morgan. The clan is ready to claim greater representation in Uncle Sam's fleet than any other family in the United States.

The enlistment recently of H. V. and L. E. Wolf brought to five the number of brothers either now on ships of the fleet or in training.

But we can't keep higher prices back forever . . .

We own this huge stock at low original, gone-last-April prices and we're not going to advance one item one cent until we have to go back and replace it at higher figures.

But don't you see that every day you wait brings you nearer higher prices that are waiting for us both? Don't you see that ten, twenty, thirty suits leaving tomorrow puts us one step nearer the market and you one step nearer a mark up? More Inflation Seems Inevitable, Says Roger Babson

Financial Expert Discusses Relief and Social Security

BY ROGER W. BABSON
Babson Park, Mass.—Strikes, Congress, and Europe have knocked confidence galley-west. They are only temporary factors. However, and will not hearken industry indefinitely. Good crops this summer should pull business out of its current slump by autumn. As a matter of fact, these current disturbances are like a smoke-screen. They are obscuring our real problem—the constant trend toward inflation.

Today, though inflation is not making headlines, it is making headway. With stock prices drifting listlessly and business slipping downward, people unconsciously think more about deflation than inflation. This is the mistake made in every inflationary period. It is the biggest reason why inflation is so hard to control. If it were sure that inflation is coming, they would stop it. Like a severe disease, it makes its greatest progress in the incubation stages before the symptoms appear. There might have been no printing-press money in Europe if the majority of their people had been keen enough to recognize the trend during the critical "hatching" period. We must profit from Europe's experience.

New Kind Of Insurance
Like everybody else, I have let inflation slip from mind during the last few weeks. Two recent Administration reports, however, have snapped me back to reality. The first was an address of Harry Hopkins, head of the WPA, which was read at the Babson Institute Commencement. Mr. Hopkins presented a serious doctrine. He said that cutting out the WPA "will save business a few pennies in taxes but for every penny saved from Uncle Sam it will have to give dollars to future depressions." The present government apparently feels that the WPA is here to stay. It wants business to consider the resultant increase in taxes as an insurance premium paid to delay the next depression.

Back in 1933 everyone honestly believed that our relief program was only an emergency measure. No one dreamed that such a vast hand-out would ever become a permanent policy—that millions would live on the public treasury forever! Federal authorities see little hope of getting rid of many welfare wards unless output jumps 20 per cent above the 1929 peak. Their contention is that not only has our population grown but fewer workers are needed because of labor-saving machinery. The increase in machinery since 1929, however, has been offset by the shorter work-week. Moreover, our population growth has produced only five per cent more workers than we had eight years ago.

Permanent Relief
Hence, if output runs 5 per cent above the 1929 level, everyone should theoretically be back on private work. Industrial activity is nearly up to its old peak, but relief rolls show only slight losses. Moreover, there will be no drastic drop while the present easy policies are pursued. So long as governors and mayors swarm on Washington like mad hornets whenever a cut is announced, no economies can be made. Millions who never did work very hard will remain public charges if WPA is to be a permanent policy. The cost of their care will be about $2,000,000,000 per year. I see little hope of balancing our budget while this huge expense continues. As all history shows, there is only one outcome of reckless national spending: THIS IS INFLATION.

The second startling announcement from Washington was an obscure report that the Treasury would not have to borrow new money to pay its bills this year "because it could use Social Security taxes now pouring in." I believe in the basic principle of Social Security. I do feel, however, that the terms of the present legislation are not sound. I have long been afraid that the temptation to use the Social Security funds for the ordinary day-to-day expenses of the government would be too great for the Treasury to overcome. The recent notice from Washington confirms these fears.

Violating A Trust
Social Security money is in the nature of a trust fund. Washington is supposed to invest this money in government bonds so that when the time comes to pay out there will be a sufficient income to take care of all those who have contributed. Appropriating the receipts, as they come in, for running expenses and issuing bonds against them is a dangerous policy, ethically the violation of a trust. The Old Age Reserve Fund is expected to reach a maximum of over $45,000,000,000 within forty years. It must be invested solely in government bonds. Our federal debt today, although the highest in history is only $36,000,000,000. Hence, this encourages spending by Congress in order to create enough debt so that it can borrow all the Social Security fund and pay interest on it.

If we are to continue with the present law, the Reserve Fund provisions should be amended as follows:—(1) The Social Security Board should be forced to acquire its government bonds by buying them in the open market. (2) The Social Security Board should be allowed to buy high-grade municipals—and possibly choice corporation issues. I do not think that United States government bonds are necessarily the soundest security in the world. They could suffer just as German and French bonds have suffered. The Old Age Reserve Fund should be diversified just as any soundly-managed trust fund.

Mutual Basis Sounder
The entire Social Security program, however, should be changed immediately. Congress should put it on a mutual, or pay-as-you-go basis. If so, the government could begin now to take care of all people who

Outagamie Listed In Counties With High Traffic Toll

Seven Districts Account For 129 of Wisconsin's 272 Fatalities

Seven counties accounted for 129 of Wisconsin's 272 traffic fatalities in the first five months of 1937, three accidents took a toll of 21 lives, and 20 counties listed no street or highway deaths up to June 1, the State Highway Commission reports.

Counties with heavy traffic tolls were Milwaukee 51, Kenosha 15, Dane 15, Manitowoc 14, Outagamie 13, Brown 11 and Chippewa 10. The 20 counties without a traffic fatality for the first five months of 1937 were: Door, Adams, Waushara, Marquette, Green Lake, Trempealeau, Pepin, Clark, Langlade, Florence, Vilas, Bayfield, Ashland, Washburn, Polk, Rusk, Crawford, Richland, Grant and LaFayette. Seventeen of these 20 counties have active safety councils with cooperative safety programs, the State Highway Commission points out.

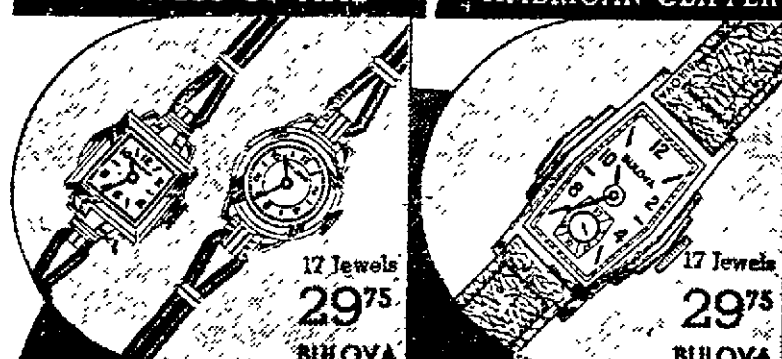

Six counties reported their first fatalities of the year during May: Walworth, Monroe, Pierce, Forest, Shawano and Iowa.

Just as the losses are assessed on the policyholders of a mutual insurance company, this would eliminate the gigantic reserve fund and all its complications. But if the present set-up continues, I do not see how ultimate inflation can be avoided!

Crazed or Blind Persons Can Drive Car in Illinois

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER
Chicago—Illinois, as you might have supposed, is one of the eight backward states in the happy American union whose motorists are not required to meet any tests as to their physical or mental fitness or mechanical ability, but may just hop in and drive.
A legless or armless man, a paralyzed man, a known lunatic, a person totally blind or one who has never before sat behind the wheel of a car has a legal right to pull out into the traffic in town or country, because there happens to be no license law on the books.
The subject is one of particular interest at the moment because there is a bill up in the legislature providing a rather mild form of regulation which is about to be licked, because of a politicians' wrangle over the patronage or jobs or graft which the new bureau would provide.
It isn't much of a law to be sure, because it gives the superintendent of highways permission to issue licenses without examination to all applicants who ask for them prior to next New Year's day. That would protect the driving privilege of all those who are driving now, and, indeed, of all others who think they might want to drive at some future time, but feel bashful about their qualifications. It is a typical Illinois law designed to do on a technicality. Tennessee and New Mexico passed valid laws and withdrew from the dwindling company of the backward states, but unlicensed and unqualified drivers from Illinois and the seven other primitives still have the privilege under reciprocal arrangements of driving cars in the progressive states such as New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and the rest.

There is, needless to say, no indignation among the citizens of Illinois. The public, personally, does not want to be bothered by regulation and the necessity for carrying license certificates. And, anyway, from long experience, the citizens quickly spotted the proposed act as no attempt to reduce the dangers of the road but merely as a bill to provide jobs for deserving Democrats administering, in the quaint, discriminating Illinois manner, a law intended to do no public good.
Even if by some political miracle the bill should pass, it would be well to remember that it doesn't actually compel Illinois drivers to take any mental or physical test and to give them plenty of road-room wherever the Illinois license is seen.

When it went to the senate, however, it was amended to turn over the new department to the secretary of state who is Mr. Kelly's fellow, and the appropriation was cut to $750,000 just half. I did hear why the appropriation was reduced, but it is a long story, and you need only be assured that economy was no part of the reason. Or more likely, you don't need telling.

So now the bill is back in the house again, and the boys are trying to get together on a political compromise, but the time is short, and the probability is that they will disagree and leave their subjects still unprotected from crazy drivers of all kinds, which would be no great hardship, because the people are used to the hazards of the road.

St. John Church Celebrates Its Diamond Jubilee

Congregation Organized in 1862 by About 15 Families

Hilbert—St. John the Baptist parish at St. John celebrated the diamond jubilee of its founding on Thursday. Bishop Paul P. Rhode of Green Bay was celebrant of a 10 o'clock solemn high mass.
St. John the Baptist congregation was organized in 1862, when about fifteen families of the early settlers of that locality, almost all Catholics, donated a few acres of land and built a small log church about one hundred feet north of where the present church stands. From 1862 to 1869 the spiritual needs of the parish were taken care of by the various pastors of St. Francis church of Hollandtown, who came to St. John once a month. The first of these was Father Luytelaar who came during the period of 1862-1864, and he was succeeded by Father B. H. De Goey, from 1864-1869. From 1869 to 1870 Father Clement Duerr of Buchanan, now Darboy, attended St. John as a mission and built the first rectory at a cost of $600. He was the last of the non-resident pastors, as in the year 1870 the Rev. Anthony Leitner was appointed the first resident pastor of St. John.
During his two years of service the present solid brick church was built at a cost of $6,945. The old log church was used for a school in charge of a Catholic lay teacher.
From 1872-1874, the Rev. A. E. Lezno and from 1874 to 1875 the Rev. John Guenterscheid were pastors. In 1875 the Rev. J. S. Joster became the pastor and during his service two bells were purchased for the church and blessed by Bishop J. H. Krautbauer of the Green Bay diocese. The present school building was also erected during the pastorate of Father Jaster in the year 1877 and immediately upon its completion the Sisters of St. Agnes convent of Fond du Lac, took over the teaching duties in St. John's school and have continued their duties to the present day, a period of 60 years.
Father Jaster was succeeded by the Rev. Charles Buschle in 1879 who remained only a few months and was succeeded by the Rev. Ignatius Ritter, pastor from 1879 to 1896. Father Ritter served until his death 17 years later, in 1896, and was the first priest to be buried in St. John cemetery. During his pastorate the present pipe organ was purchased and installed in St. John's church. He was succeeded by the Rev. John Westkamp who died 10 years later.

In 1905, the Rev. Michael Roppuld was sent to St. John to assist Father Westkamp, whose health was then failing and upon the latter's death succeeded him as pastor of St. John. Father Roppuld spent his entire priestly life of 28 years caring for spiritual needs of St. John's congregation. During his pastorate the Holy Name society, the Christian Mother's society and Young Ladies Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary were organized in the parish. The sanctuary was rebuilt and the entire church redecorated; new stations of the cross were erected; electric lights and furnaces were installed in the church, school, rectory and sisters' home and various articles were bought for the church. A new section, consisting of 108 lots was purchased and added to St. John's cemetery. On Jan. 24, 1933, Father Roppuld died.
On June 15, 1933, the present pastor, the Rev. Peter A. Salm, came to St. John. He immediately took up the parish census and found his parish to consist of 70 families. A small parish debt was quickly liquidated, the school and rectory repaired and the interior of the church redecorated.
Among the first sisters to teach here were: Sisters M. Hyacintha, M. Rosalia, M. Pauline and M. Camilla. The following sisters have had charge of the school the last five years: M. Agnes Marie, M. Carlita and M. Evangelist.
The Rev. Alfred Loehr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Loehr, was the first boy of the parish who has studied for the priesthood. He was ordained May 25, 1937.

Northeastern Wisconsin Women to Gather Here for Annual Golf Meet

PLAYING the course at Butte des Morts Golf club is considered one of the best golf tests in the state of Wisconsin. Women golfers who plan to compete in the Northeastern Wisconsin Women's Golf association tournament next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at that club will be interested to know. No. 6 hole on the course is its longest, 545 yards, and also its most beautiful, for the fairway is flanked with trees and the green is on an incline, surrounded by trees.

A short description of the course, with ladies' par, follows:
First—330 yards long. Par 4. The tee is on a hill, and if the golfer tops the ball, it will roll down into the rough or into a ditch sometimes filled with water. A good drive, however, will take her out on the fairway. The second shot for a woman will probably be a good club shot to the green, which is on top of a hill. It is a difficult green to get on to because it is easy to overshoot it, and if the golfer is too cautious, the ball will be on the side of the hill.

Second Hole
Second—325 yards. Par 4. This hole offers no hazards till just in front of the green, which is trapped on two sides, and if the golfer overshoots, the ball will probably go into troublesome rough.
Third—360 yards. Par 5. Here the golfer drives off a tee on a hill on to a rather broad fairway. There is danger in the second shot in that there is a trap on the right side of the fairway. The hole is a slight dog-leg to the left, and is considered one of the easier holes for anyone who hits a long ball.

Fourth—471 yards. Par 6. The danger lies in a creek which cuts across the fairway about 250 yards from the tee. Once across the creek, however, the green is easily approached. This is another good hole for the woman who hits a long ball. Men have found it an easy one to birdie.
Fifth—170 yards. Par 3. This is one of the short holes on the course, but a drive to the right will roll down a hill and result in considerable trouble. There is also trouble in store for the woman who overdrives the green, and there is a sand trap on the left of the green.

Sixth Hole
Sixth—345 yards. Par 6. This is Butte des Morts' famous long hole. A drive off the tee if hooked or sliced will go into the rough. On the second shot the golfer will have to keep her ball on the fairway, or it will be in the woods, and the same is true for the third and fourth shots. The green is particularly difficult putting because it is on a slight incline.

Seventh—160 yards. Par 3. The dubbed shot will go into the creek, for this is one of the water holes on the course, and in that case the golfer will have to shoot a second ball. There is a sand trap just below the hill on which the green is situated, and the green is probably one of the most difficult on which to putt. It is on an incline, and the near side is considerably lower than the upper hill.

Eighth—370 yards. Par 5. There is a dog-leg to the right and two sand traps on the right hand side, but if the golfer stays on the fairway she will have little difficulty. There is also a sand trap to the left of the green, and the green is rather tantalizing putting surface because of a slight mound in the middle of it.
Ninth Hole
Ninth—365 yards. Par 5. Here a player must drive off a tee on a hill and cross the rather wide creek bed to get up on the embankment. Once across, however, the remainder of the distance to the green can be easily negotiated. However, there is a sand trap on the right and also on the left of the green, which is situated immediately in front of the club house.

Tenth—420 yards. Par 5. The tee is situated in front of the club house, and the first two shots are on a rather wide fairway. Rolling fairway on the last 150 yards may prove troublesome, and one trap protects the green on the left.
Eleventh—425 yards. Par 5. After a drive off an elevated tee, the course again crosses the bed of the creek, and a short drive means trouble. However, the remainder of the distance to the green should be negotiated easily. There is a trap on the right of the green and fairly long rough on the far side.
Twelfth—130 yards. Par 3. This short hole will prove troublesome because the green is located along side a creek which curls around just in front of the green. For the golfer to overdrive means trouble in rough on the side incline, and a shot to the left will put the ball out in the creek or in an almost unplayable lie.

Thirteenth Hole
Thirteenth—470 yards. Par 5. The golfer will again drive off an elevated tee down on to a fairway which has weeds on the left and a few old trees on the right, to a point where it is crossed by a creek. Once across the creek the fairway is rather wide, and as one approaches the green, which is on the top of a hill, there are several traps to be avoided.
Fourteenth—245 yards. Par 3. From the tee to approximately 200 yards, the hole appears to be rather easy. However, as the fairway dips down into the creek bed it is obvious that putting the ball on to the green, which has just on the other side of the creek will be a task.
Fifteenth—260 yards. Par 4. The tee is down in the creek bed, and the golfer will have to shoot directly at a target placed on the bank about 120 yards from the tee. Once up on the hill, the remaining distance to the green is rather easy. However, the green is trapped on the right hand side. For anyone who overshoots there is plenty of rough.

Sixteenth Hole
Sixteenth—320 yards. Par 5. Here the first two shots are along a long, rolling fairway. On the third shot, however, there is a ditch to be avoided, with the green on the other side and the distance rather deceptive because of the roll of the fairway. There is also a sand trap on the right of the fairway near the green.
Seventeenth—120 yards. Par 3. This is the last of the short holes and the shortest on the course. For anyone who can drive on to the green, it will be easy. A short shot, however, will probably find the

Rev. Hanna And Family To Go East

THE Rev. and Mrs. John B. Hanna, 302 E. Lawrence street, and their daughter, Ruth, will leave next week to go to Provincetown, Mass., for the summer. The Rev. 2 Delegates To Mission Meet Named DELEGATES, elected to the Women's Missionary society convention in Lima July 29, by the Emmanuel Evangelical church at its meeting last night are Mrs. Frank Seiberlich and Mrs. C. Selig. The alternates are Mrs. Peter Lind and Mrs. Eldon Schultz. The chapter, "Education of the Negroes," was discussed, and Mrs. Louise Uebbe gave a talk on current events. Miss Delores Peotter played a piano selection, "Happy Days," and Mrs. Eldon Schultz read a poem entitled "The Teacher." The hostesses for the day were Mrs. Lawrence Voss, Mrs. A. B. Lorenz, Mrs. William Krueger, Mrs. George Grimmer, Mrs. Charles Riesenweber, Mrs. Edward May and Mrs. Eldon Schultz.

Members of the reading circle of First English Lutheran church, meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Baumbler, E. Eldorado street, completed the reading of the book "How Halvor Became a Minister." About 10 members were present. The next meeting will be July 8 at the home of Mrs. Fred Brockman, 721 E. North street.

Mrs. Fred Stofel was given the grand prize at schafkopf and Mrs. Anna Zickler the grand prize at plumpskopf as the Ladies Aid society of St. Joseph Catholic church concluded its series of card parties at St. Joseph hall yesterday afternoon. Prizes at yesterday's games were won by Mrs. E. Buss and Mrs. E. Glasan at schafkopf and by Mrs. Joseph Doerfler and Mrs. F. Lehrer at plumpskopf. There were about six tables in play.

The Women's Union of the First Baptist church will give a dinner in the dining room of the church next Wednesday noon from 11 to 1 o'clock.

The Salvation Army Sunday school picnic will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at Pierce park. Each person is to bring his own lunch, and those living near the park are asked to go directly to the park, while those living nearer the temple are asked to be there at 11 o'clock.

Alaska Miners Find Many Animal Fossils

According to Dr. Ralph W. Chaney, paleontologist of the Carnegie Institution and of the University of California, mining operations near Fairbanks, Alaska, are bringing to light quantities of plant and animal fossils representing an age to be measured in thousands and tens of thousands of years. Great bison are the most common of the animal fossils, but the fauna includes many specimens of the mammoth, the horse, the caribou, the musk ox, and, more rarely, the lion. Of these animals only the caribou now live in Alaska.

Not only the bones of large animals, but those also of small rodents are being uncovered. Abundant, too, are the tunnels and nests of ground squirrels of past ages which contain, cached for winter use, seeds of dandelions, phlox, and other plants which still live in the region. Beaver dams, constructed of thousands of tree stems, are also washed out of the frozen muck. The presence of stems of the aspen which bear the teeth-marks of beavers show that then, as now, the aspen was a favorite food of the beavers.

Jean Harlow's Glamor Crown May Fall To One Of These

TILLY LOSCH, a red head from Vienna, represents the exotic type of glamor in Hollywood. She was introduced into films as the Oriental dancer in "The Garden of Allah." Since then her role of seductress in "The Good Earth" has earned her a long-term contract, with stardom ahead.

ALICE FAYE, a blonde from New York, has often been compared to Jean Harlow. She is famous for roles in which voluptuous "hard-boiled" is softened by a heart of gold. Lately she has been given parts in which her natural flair for comedy and pathos could be exhibited. She is definitely on the way up.

MARLA SHELTON, a brunette newcomer from Muskogee, Okla., shines with a dark, statuesque Indian beauty — she is three-eighths Cherokee. From a beauty shop she went into "westerns," was transformed into "vampire," and now is being groomed for big things as Hollywood's latest glamor girl.

Many Showers Given for Girls Who are to be Wed

MISS ALICE SKALMUSKY of Kaukauna was honored at a dinner and miscellaneous shower at the Candle Glow Tea room Wednesday night given by Mrs. Claud Bowly, Mrs. Byron Bowly, Mrs. Esther Heaton, Mrs. Merrick Nelson and Miss Evelyn Alvord. Prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. W. Shepherd, Mrs. Jake Mathews, Mrs. H. L. Bowly and Miss Alice Skalmusky. Miss Skalmusky, daughter of John Skalmusky, Kaukauna, will marry Howard Bowly, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bowly, 219 W. Atlantic street, in July.

Marie Roovers was honored at a shower held at the Kimberly clubhouse Wednesday evening. Miss Roovers will be married to John Sanderfoot on July 3. The evening spent in playing schafkopf and rummy.

Those attending were Mrs. Joe Kiborn, Mrs. Ted Sanderfoot, Miss Julia Welhouse, Miss Alice Schumann, the Misses Catherine Louise and Johanna Roovers, Miss Johanna Van Horn, Mrs. Frank Roovers, Mrs. P. Hofacker, Miss Ann Sanderfoot, Mrs. Anton Ermers, Mrs. Clarence Sanderfoot, Mrs. Anton Polman, Miss Francis Welhouse, Mrs. John Vanbeck, Miss Rosella Hackel, Mrs. Martin Van Deraa, Miss Wilma Lamers, Mrs. Lawrence Dufrene, Mrs. John Houtermann, Mrs. George Jansen, Mrs. John Van Meer, Mrs. William Senechal, Miss Emily Fjellerod, Miss Marietta and Bernice Dresang and Mrs. Dick Marquardt.

A 12 o'clock luncheon was given yesterday at the Hearstone Tea room by Miss Evelyn Grassl and Mrs. Earl Zuehlke in honor of Miss Laura Reier who will marry in August. Miss Reier was presented with a gift. Those present were Mrs. Arthur Wendt, Miss Ryllis Batzler, Mrs. Joseph Grassl, Miss Armande Reier, Mrs. Earl Zuehlke, Miss Laura Reier and Miss Evelyn Grassl. Miss Reier, who is secretary at the vocational school, is the daughter of Henry Reier, New London. She will marry Arthur Rock of Fullerton, Calif., sometime in August.

Mrs. Leila Mortimer, 315 N. Oneida street, entertained about 10 guests at a tea Thursday afternoon at her home in honor of her cousin Miss Rose Helm, who will be married next month to A. Frank Tuttle. Since each of the guests gave a gift to Miss Helm, the party was also in the nature of a shower. An out of town guest was Miss Esther Bock of Lake Forest.

Miss Sylvia Sandhofer, Kimberly, entertained a number of friends at her home Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Idella Courchane, who will be married to Ray Schwank next month. Court whist provided entertainment for the evening and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Adolph Courchane, first and Miss Genrose Cavil, low. Others attending were Mrs. Harold Hoolihan, Mrs. Alvin Tews and Mrs. Beecher Wolgram, Appleton, and Mrs. Gordon Welch and Miss Marie Van Himbergen.

Mrs. Cy Burton, who was married the first part of this month, was honored at a shower given by Mrs. William Burton Tuesday evening at her home, 903 N. Morrison street. Bridge was played, and prizes were won by Mrs. George Rippl, Mrs. Joseph Guilfoyle, Mrs. J. Heins and Mrs. L. Jensen.

Mrs. Frank Paeth, 1712 S. Oneida street, entertained at a miscellaneous shower for her daughter, Genevieve, last evening. Dice, bridge, and schafkopf were played, and the prizes went to Mrs. Ida Patzel, Miss Clara Patzel, Mrs. Frank Peotter, Miss Genevieve Dietrich and Miss Marian Balza. Miss Paeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paeth, S. Oneida street, will be married to William Peotter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peotter, 811 N. Winona way, on June 28.

Planes Placate Chinese Marshal

Chiang Kai-Shek Forgives When Opponents Give Him Transports

"Young Marshal" Chang Hsueh-liang's successive falls from grace have done the former Manchurian warlord no good, but they have provided his good friend, Chiang Kai-shek, with nearly half of the private air fleet which enables the generalissimo to be the man on the spot wherever and whenever in China trouble breaks out.

Three times has "Young" Chang tumbled. Three times has he presented his latest transport plane to General Chiang.

The "young marshal's" loss of his Manchurian domain, with little more than a gesture of a struggle, and his recent coup d'etat and kidnapping of General Chiang at Nanking, successfully belittled his reputation and forced him into temporary retirement.

The first tumble netted Chiang Kai-shek a Ford tri-motor transport. The second did likewise. Now with the Sian mutiny settled with a minimum loss of face for all parties concerned and the chief actor in the drama, the "young marshal," rusticating on the country estate of his recent captive and best friend, the Boeing transport which carried both captor and captive from hostile Sian to safety last Christmas day has taken its place alongside the other one-time Chang Hsueh-liang planes in the generalissimo's hangar at Nanking.

10,000 Called Back to Jobs in Mahoning Valley

itled to do so. That was what the governor said in a late night order to the adjutant general.

The governor acted immediately after President Roosevelt's three-man mediation board at Cleveland had made a final, unsuccessful effort to settle the strike with a proposed "man-to-man" discussion around a conference table.

"We are very sorry," said these identical statements of the Republic Steel corporation and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. "We cannot, in justice to our employees, sign a contract with C. I. O."

This was accepted generally as marking the definite collapse of the board's four-day efforts to find a common ground for mediation of the costly strike. The board members themselves were frankly disheartened.

As Ohio militiamen were getting their new orders, martial law was being lifted on another tense strike front—Johnstown, Pa., where state police, under orders from Governor Earle, forced the closing of the Bethlehem Steel corporation's Cambria works last Sunday.

Almost immediately, fears were expressed by Johnstown officials of a "march of miners" into town today as a demonstration of miner support for the striking C. I. O. steel men.

Sheriff Michael Boyle expected "some 7,000" miners from the state's soft coal fields to pour into the city to bolster picket lines around the Cambria works. Union leaders said between 20,000 and 30,000 marchers were expected.

Governor Davey's new militia orders were hardly an hour old before dynamite blasts echoed down the strike front at Warren, Ohio, where Republic Steel's plant has been operating throughout the strike.

One explosion occurred near the gates of Republic's Open Hearth and police arrested a man on suspicion. The other was directed at a car in which national guardsmen were riding.

No one was hurt. The soldiers, sin-fired at the car from which the bomb had been thrown, but it disappeared into the night.

Guardsmen at Warren had reported earlier that they had uncovered caches of clubs and iron pipes—weapons of strike violence—within 100 yards of the Republic's plant. Under a court order, all C. I. O. pickets at Warren were disbanded two days ago.

Several bakery trucks with food for workers inside the Republic mills were overturned yesterday, and the company continued to use airplanes to get supplies to the workers.

The lifting of martial law at Johnstown this morning did not signal the immediate reopening of the Cambria works, with its normal pay roll of nearly half a million dollars a week.

Must Reheat Furnaces

Company officials pointed out that furnaces were banked when the closing order was issued by the governor, and that it would require some time to reheat them and start pig iron and steel ingots moving to the finishing mills.

Talk of the "miners' march" caused Major Lynn G. Adams, superintendent of the Pennsylvania state police, to cancel an order, which would have seen 200 state highway patrolmen back to their regular posts.

"We have no objection to the miners' coming, as long as they remain orderly," he said.

A few hours after midnight the miners were reported massing at some places for the march.

What the effect of Governor Davey's new instructions to the Ohio troops would be was conjectural. The steel companies, which were to have attempted to reopen Tuesday if the governor's order sending troops into the valley had not prevented it, did not indicate what they would do.

Strike Fate at Stake

C. I. O. leaders here were not openly downcast by the news that the troops would be used to protect non-strikers, but there was some feeling that the fate of the strike, in this section at least, might depend upon the success or failure of the "back to work" movement.

If men returned to the plants in large numbers, the situation would be admittedly much more difficult than it has been with mills closed.

The federal mediators at Cleveland sought as a final truce gesture to induce the four steel companies—Republic, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Inland Steel and Bethlehem—to agree to secret elections and if such elections should favor C. I. O. as the bargaining agent, then the companies were to sign contracts with that union.

The steel men declined. They reiterated that they "could not, in justice to our employees, sign a contract with C. I. O."

No more meetings of the board are scheduled, although the mediators remain available, should the situation take a new turn.

Fastest Growing Business of Its Kind

1931—Opened July 17th with five feet of counter space in an open air building of 8x10 ft.

1931—October First—Added a kitchen and inside accommodation building of 20x22 ft.

1932—May—Several hundreds loads of filling was used to add a parking space to serve more customers with better tray service.

1933—(The comeback of Beer) We added beauty by laying the foundation of our outside gardens with tons of scenic rocks and beautiful flowers and trees.

1934—May and June the building time again.—The year we built outside booths, a barbecue stand, a bandstand with public address system, — more flowers and trees were planted and over a 1000 more loads of filling were used for a larger parking space.

1934—October—Another addition to accommodate more guests inside.

1935—First cheese coated popcorn stand in the State.

1936—All of the buildings remodeled, new, modern sunlight kitchen built with latest stainless steel equipment. Latest type refrigeration. Lighting and water equipment installed to insure best of sanitary conditions. Large modernistic bar and more booths.

1937—Tables have been added which have been placed among more than 100 labor vines, mountain ash, pines, elms, junipers and honeysuckles. 81 of which were added in May. Also many more thousands of beautiful trees have been planted. Many more tons of scenic rock have been arranged in building fences, sunken gardens and an arch over which a large blue and green neon sign has been installed.

Our facilities for three hundred (300) people now enables us to serve you properly without the inconvenience of tray service which we have eliminated, and which we were compelled to use only because our business increased faster than our accommodations.

Solve Juvenile Problems to Curb Crime, Burke Says

State Parole Officer Gives Talk at Neenah Rotary Meeting

Neenah—If the juvenile delinquency problem could be solved there would be no need for reformatories, prisons or parole systems," said John S. Burke, Waupun, state parole officer, in an address before members of the Neenah Rotary club Thursday noon at Valley Inn.

Mr. Burke, who has been a parole officer for the last six years, explained the parole system, old methods of punishments compared with modern methods and told of the importance of religion in curbing crime.

Speaking of the juvenile delinquency problem, the parole officer said, "Youngsters are easier to turn from criminal paths than older men who have had warped views on society during a long period. The child at home and the school have definite responsibilities in developing children. A child's leisure time is greater than that spent at home and in schools. Moral responsibilities should be emphasized when the child is under supervision.

Must Attend Church
"To develop the ideas of right and wrong, the child must be sent to church where he will have the right contacts. Moral teachings of Christ are best to set the child on the right path. Threats of punishment very often are ineffective. There has been a change since the days when the child was forced to walk long distances to school and do his part of the chores at home. He now has time to get into the wrong kind of company," Burke said.

Describing criminal types, the parole officer said, "Of all men in prisons in the United States, 98 per cent have not been connected with churches in any way. The average inmate is 22 years of age, has no church responsibility, has about a fourth grade education and has a reputation of being a poor worker."

"There is a need for a good sound probation system to give delinquents moral education. Good men should be employed for the job, one who can gain a boy's confidence and get him started in the right direction. Leisure time programs should be conducted in all cities," he continued.

Work Is Necessary
"When the boy or man has gone wrong and is sentenced to an institution, the work of the parole officer begins. The offender must be brought back to right ways of thinking before he is released into society at the end of his term. If he is treated like a dog, it will make him a social menace. Work in the prison is necessary. We must have schools for those who have had no educational advantages. We try to reintroduce him in religion and maintain full time priests and ministers for that purpose," the Waupun man told Rotarians.

Expanding the parole system, Burke said, "Towards the end of a man's term, we cut down on discipline so that he may be prepared to reenter society. We have a forestry camp where the men are taken under guard. By employing this method, the men are taken away from the atmosphere of the prison and given a chance to work outdoors."

"After a man has proven that he can be trusted," Burke continued, "He is given a parole. The parole officer helps to place him in industry and checks on him for the remainder of his term. If he breaks parole, time he has earned through good behavior is taken from him and he is sent back to the prison to finish his term behind bars."

27 Parole Officers
Ninety per cent of the men paroled in the state of Wisconsin have successfully finished their parole. Thirty-seven parole officers in the state check on their activities to make certain that the prisoner is worthy of trust," he said.

Seventy of parole officers in Wisconsin were discussed by Burke, who said that these men had failed to convert crime to good and had increased instead of decreased crime. He said that the parole officer's job is to help the prisoner to become a law-abiding citizen.

20 Million Dollar Bond Issue Voted

By Kimberly-Clark

Neenah—Preferred and common stock holders of the Kimberly-Clark corporation at a recent meeting ratified the action of the board of directors in voting a 20 million dollar first mortgage bond issue. Ten million dollars worth of bonds will be sold immediately, part of the proceeds to be used for refunding the corporation's first mortgage five per cent gold bonds, series A, outstanding in the amount of $3,318,000. The balance will be used to provide additional working capital. New bonds will be designated as 15-year sinking fund bonds, series of 1937, and will bear interest of 4 1/2 per cent.

Stockholders were informed by officers of the corporation of a general slackening in business volume in recent weeks. Reasons given for the slack business were labor unrest and the uncertainty of the future.

140 Boys Return From Camp at Onaway Island

8-Day Encampment Ends for Neenah and Menasha Youths

Neenah—Over 140 boys and leaders returned to Neenah Thursday noon after an 8-day encampment with the Boys Brigade at Onaway Island.

Officer Irving Stulp, of the county police, and Officer Henry Vanderhyden, of the Neenah police, escorted the group to Neenah. Camp was broken Thursday morning and the line of cars started from Edmunds dock about 10 o'clock.

The day opened with morning chapel services and Gordon Rhoades gave the first year boy's version of the best part of camp. George Evans told of what the Brigade has done for boys who have graduated and Captain Lucille Stulp thanked the boys for contributions to the success of the camp. Many pictures of the camp and of the boys were taken during the period and it is expected that the best will be gathered together and displayed in a public place. Prints of pictures will be available for those who wish a record of camp activity. While at camp the boys engaged in every type of sport and competition including ping pong, badminton, baseball, sailing, track, wrestling and swimming. Tent awnings were also made for dish washing and tent inspection.

Neenah Society

Neenah—Mrs. Burton Manser, Appleton, who before her marriage June 12 was Miss Louise Stommel of Menasha, was guest of honor at a dessert bridge at the Column Terrace, W. Washington avenue, Thursday evening when Mrs. H. W. Durrant, 204 Fourth street, Menasha, entertained for her. Prizes were awarded Miss Lucille Shea, Miss Anna Gram and Miss Betty Stratton. Mrs. Manser was presented with a gift.

Pythian Sisters will meet at the K. P. hall this evening for a short business session after which a social hour will be held. The meeting this evening will be the last one until September.

Mrs. Frank Kellogg is chairman of the committee that will arrange for the picnic this summer for the Havilah Babcock Sunday School class. Picnics will be held in July and August at cottages of members.

Neenah Lady Eagles held a business meeting and social Thursday evening in Eagle hall. Mrs. Emma Henneby, Mrs. Nina Korotev, Mrs. Alice Seidel, Mrs. Emma Shenadore and Mrs. Agnes Peterson were named members of July social committee. Cards were played during the social committee and honors went to Mrs. Alta Blohm, Mrs. Alice Bart and Mrs. Sadie Abenschen.

Circle 4 Ladies Society, First Methodist church, met Wednesday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. E. Stevens. Mrs. Henry Johnson was in charge of the program. She related the story of the life of Grace Nell Crowell and read some of her poems. Mrs. Everett Harness and Mrs. E. A. Nelson were assisting hostesses.

Mrs. Robert Gernard, 401 Cleveland street, and Mrs. Edmund Blum, Neenah, were guests at the home of Mrs. A. W. Kaup, 39 County avenue, Oshkosh, when Mrs. Kaup entertained recently at a dinner for Miss Lillian Behnke who is to be married to Donald Zelmer.

The City W. C. T. U. will meet Saturday noon with Mrs. Will Pearson, 424 Washington avenue. Plans for a picnic in July at the J. D. Schaefer place will be completed.

Mrs. Emma Crutman and Mrs. Carrie Lillander entertained the Royal Neenah Drill team Thursday at the home of the former on Oak street. Honors in what went to Mrs. Helen Collins and Mrs. Emma Lillander in schafkopf to Mrs. L. A. Bart and Mrs. Theresa Stekowitz and Mrs. M. M. Hanselman won the guest prize.

Huynh Hand society of the Neenah Ladies auxiliary has postponed its meeting scheduled for Monday, June 28.

Yacht Club Arranges Races for Saturday
Neenah—Members of the Neenah Nodaway Yacht club will race on the Winnebago triangular course Saturday and Sunday. Boats in five classes including class A, national X boats, cuts and miscellaneous, will participate. Last week's race, participated by Twin City pilots, raced on Saturday and Sunday, June 26 and 27, with 26 participants in the races Sunday.

THEY'RE PREPARED—FOR NATIONAL BOY SCOUT JAMBOREE

Pictured here giving the scout salute are the four Menasha Boy Scouts who will go to the national jamboree at Washington, D. C., with the Valley Council contingent.

They will leave from Appleton next Monday for the national gathering which opens Tuesday in Washington. Spengler will also attend the international convocation of scouts in Holland. They will be accompanied by J. Wesley Olson, Neenah scoutleader. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Final Account in Pawlowski Estate Allowed in Court

Menasha Woman Leaves $1,299.41; Divided Between Heirs

(Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau)
Oshkosh—Judgment allowing final account in the estate of Lucille Pawlowski, Menasha, was entered in Winnebago county court today. The estate was valued at $4,959.30, with claims of $659.89 and a residue of $4,299.41. It consisted of real estate and personal property.

The will bequeathed $200 to Mrs. Frances Waskiewicz, 690 Appleton road, Menasha, an adopted daughter; $319.88 each to four sons and a daughter: Louis, John, Joseph, Anton, and Kasimir Pawlowski, and Josephine Driver, a daughter, Menasha. Mrs. Driver was also bequeathed real estate in the Fourth ward of Menasha.

Judgment allowing final account in the estate of Anna Pankratz, Menasha, was also entered in county court. According to the report of Carl Loehning, executor, the estate was valued at $1,496.73 with claims of $497.64 and a residue of $999.09.

The will of John Rohe, Menasha, disposing of an estate estimated at $14,000, and entered in county court Thursday, provided that only $500 be given a son, Henry Rohe, "for personal reasons."

Nora Luniak, a daughter, was given a note secured by a mortgage on a farm in the Town of Harrison, Calumet county; Hannah Reiter, a daughter, was given a note likewise secured by a mortgage on a farm in Calumet county, but with proviso she pay another daughter, Lena Drydyk, $1,300; and real estate in the city of Menasha was divided between the three daughters.

The residue was divided to two daughters, Nora Luniak and Hannah Reiter, with Nora Luniak named executrix.

Menasha Society

Menasha—Miss Mabel Stadler who is to be married July 3 was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at the home of Miss Dolores Koslowski, Fourth street, when Miss Koslowski and Miss Loretta Wagner entertained for her. Cards were played during the evening and honors went to Genevieve Wagner, Irene Wipac, Bernice Teitz, Mrs. Esther Gabanski, Charlotte Kolasinski, Beatrice Strycharke, Loretta Wagner, Mrs. Martha Ambrosius, Mrs. Edward Gabanski, and Gloria Tremmel. Mabel Stadler won the guest prize. Many gifts were presented to the bride-to-be.

Twenty-five members of the B. B. B. society of the First Congregational church will entertain Friday afternoon for Rhinelanders from where they will go to Basing's Shoreland Vista on Lake George for a week's camping expedition. This will be the first vacation on Lake George as in other years, the group has gone to Elkhorn Lake.

Mrs. Arnold Buss and Miss Irene Mueller entertained Thursday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Catherine Wilz whose marriage to Emmett J. Kiesner, Menasha, will take place Wednesday morning in St. Mary's Catholic church. The party was held at the Buss home at 832 Seventh street. Prizes in schafkopf were awarded Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mrs. Dele Smith, Mrs. Witter and George Mueller. Gifts were presented to bride-to-be Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dale Smith, Miss Bernice Obroske and Miss Bernice Wagner, all of Appleton. Guests from Neenah were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith, Miss Irene Larson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Braatz, and Vernon Skinner, and those from Menasha included Mr. and Mrs. Ira Witter, Mrs. Eli Clough, Mr. and Mrs. George Muller. The following classmates of Miss Wilz when she attended St. Mary's high school were also present, Marian Borenz, Cele Walbrun, Gertrude Ciske, Florence Hackstock, Mrs. A. Hall, Irene Miller and Miss Wagner, the latter of Appleton.

LAWYER OPENS OFFICE
Menasha—Arnold Joseph Cane has started a law practice in the city. He has opened an office at 206 N. Main street.

Menasha—If you're an entomologist, (he's a fellow who studies bugs), either amateur or professional, Harold Berro, cashier at the water and light department, wants you to call around and tell him what that thing is that he's been keeping in a mayonnaise jar for a month.

He found it crawling up a wall at his home and brought it down to the office for identification. It's been around so long now that he has even named it Tony and still no one has volunteered information about its genealogy or pedigree or ancestry or whatever it is that bugs have.

Tony, capering happily about his little glass domain this morning despite the hot weather, has a segmented body about a half-inch long, black and tan on top and white on the bottom. He has two front antennae and four rear ones. Two of the back feelers are short, the others about as long as Tony himself. He has six legs, three on each side, of course, for there's nothing unbalanced about him.

Tony apparently isn't like ordinary people. He needs air, which comes to him through the holes punched in the jar's cap, but seems to get along famously without food and water.

Industrial Loop Games Scheduled At Menasha Fields

Mill Supply Team Will Meet Woodenware at Jefferson Park

Menasha—The Mill Supply softball team will try to write in a victory on their record which now shows only four defeats when they meet the strong Woodenware squad in an industrial league game on the Fifth ward diamond at 6 o'clock tonight.

Tonight's game will be the first played on the diamond in Jefferson park which has been prepared for the league by the park board. Uniform bases and a pitching mound have been laid out. Future games which have been scheduled on the Greens will be shifted to this diamond.

The Woodenware team, with five wins and one loss, is holding second place in league standings behind the Marathons who won their sixth consecutive game Wednesday night by beating the Gilbert Papers 11-1 in a postponed contest.

On the Seventh street diamond tonight, the Gilbert Papers, sitting at the bottom of the league with five defeats, will meet the Banta team, established in fifth place in the 8-team circuit with two wins and two losses.

Two more games will be played Monday night. The Banta team will meet the Strange Paper at the usual time on the Seventh street diamond and the Woodenware will play the Central Paper in the Fifth ward field.

Following are the league standings to date:

| | W. | L. |
|-----------------|----|----|
| Marathons | 6 | 0 |
| Woodenware | 4 | 1 |
| Central Paper | 4 | 2 |
| Strange Paper | 3 | 3 |
| Bantas | 2 | 2 |
| Edgewater Paper | 2 | 4 |
| Mill Supply | 0 | 4 |
| Gilbert Paper | 0 | 5 |

'Bago County 4-H Leaders Outline Plans for Contest

Preliminary and Final Meets Will be Held to Choose Dairy Queen

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau Oshkosh—County 4-H club leaders committee in charge of the Dairy Queen contest for Winnebago county met in the county agent's office Wednesday afternoon. The members of this committee are I. W. Johnson, Arthur Larsen, Mrs. Angus Clark, Marian Hunter, Mrs. Carl Steiger, Charles Foote, Mrs. Louis Jensen and Vincent Haase.

This committee will be in charge of the selection of the Winnebago county dairy queen for 1937. Plans for the preliminary contest were drawn up at the meeting of this committee Wednesday afternoon. It was decided to hold a county preliminary contest at 7:30 Wednesday evening, June 30, at the county agent's office in Oshkosh.

The plans for the preliminary contest are as follows: entry blanks will be sent to every 4-H leader in the county. These entry blanks must be filled out and returned to the county agent's office by Wednesday evening, June 30. Any 4-H Club leader in the county who has a girl or girls who are eligible to enter this contest may enter them. This means that any club may enter as many girls in the preliminary contest as are eligible. The only requirements are that the girl must be at least 15 years of age before June 1, 1937 and must have been an achievement club member for one year or more. These requirements were set up by the state Dairy Queen organization.

At the preliminary contest, a committee of three disinterested judges will select at least 10 girls who will enter the final contest which will be held on the day of the Winnebago Type and Production show which is Tuesday, July 13. The county contest will start at 10 o'clock in the morning and the crowning of the queen will take place in the afternoon of the same day at 3 o'clock. Final plans for the county contest have not been definitely decided as yet, but a suitable presentation will be planned and the county winner will receive valuable prizes besides those offered by the state fair which is a free trip to the state fair to the winning queen with all expenses paid at which time she will enter the state contest for state honors.

Judges will take into consideration in making their selection the following points: health and appearance of health, personality and character, poise and grace, general attractiveness, voice and manner of speech.

The county committee in charge of the contest urges that any 4-H girl in the county who would like to enter this contest and is eligible contact her local club leader at once and local club leaders who are interested should contact the county agent's office immediately and make the entries for their club.

Cite Butter-Fat Records of Cows

Winnebago County Agent Receives Four Certificates

(Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau) Oshkosh—E. C. Heffernan, Winnebago county agent, has received four certificates of more than usual interest this week from the office of the Wisconsin Dairymen's association. The certificate is for meritorious lifetime butter-fat production for cows and enters them in the Ton Butter-fat club. This club is for cows who have produced a ton or more of butter-fat thus far in their lifetime.

Three of the cows awarded certificates are Holsteins owned by Emil and Walter Miller, Omro. The cows are Canary Korndyke Jewel Ormsby who has produced 55,545 pounds of milk and 2280 pounds of butter-fat. This cow has produced six calves in seven years; another cow, Korndyke Colantha Hielo has produced 50,095 pounds of milk and 2495 pounds of butter-fat. She also has produced six calves in seven years. The third cow owned by Millers is Pietertje Ueneida Paulina who has produced 50,127 pounds of milk containing 2449 pounds of butter-fat. This cow also produced six calves in seven years. The fourth cow so honored in Winnebago county is Belle Ormsby Johanna of Alton, a Holstein owned by Alvin and George Allen, Oshkosh. This cow has produced 65,025 pounds of milk and 2163 pounds of butter-fat in her lifetime, as well as five calves in eight years.

Mr. Heffernan said these are commendable records and stress the value of continuous testing. Presentation of these certificates will be made to the owners at the time of the Winnebago Type and Production show, July 13.

Neenah Man to Preside At Sportsmen's Meeting

Neenah—Arthur Haase of Neenah, chairman of the Winnebago county conservation committee, will preside at a meeting of county hunters and sportsmen at 7:30 Wednesday evening, July 7, at Oshkosh City Hall. The conservation committee this year will serve as an advisory body to the state conservation committee. Problems of conservation will be discussed at the meeting.

LICENSES ISSUED (Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau) Oshkosh—Marriage licenses were issued today by A. E. Hedke, Winnebago county clerk, to Elmer M. Pansy, route 2, Neenah, and Enid M. Haase, route 3, Neenah; and to Dr. John A. Jern, 124 1/2 Wisconsin avenue, Neenah, and Dorothy A. Spohn, 109 1/2 Wisconsin avenue, Neenah.

Name Committees for St. Mary's Outing

Menasha—Chairmen of the committees for the picnic which will be held by St. Mary's church on the premises Sunday were announced today.

Ed Resch will have charge of the doll buggy and scooter parade, one of the highlights of the afternoon's entertainment. The Rev. J. A. Becker and Carl Heitl will supervise the games which will be held. Mrs. John Orth is chairman of the committee of ladies who will have charge of the refreshments.

Sixth Floor of New Court House to be Poured at Oshkosh

Continue Construction of Winnebago County Structure

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau Oshkosh—Construction on Winnebago county's new $1,000,000 courthouse is up to the fifth floor and preparations are being made to pour concrete for the sixth floor next week. Julius Sandstedt, superintendent for the architects, Granger & Bollenbacher, said today.

The building, when completed, will consist of six stories, a penthouse, and a large roomy basement. Setting of the outer Bedford stone will also start next week. Mr. Sandstedt said, and he expressed a wish for continued clear weather, as rain interferes with the exact work of setting the stones in place.

The official ceremony of setting the corner stone has been tentatively put on the calendar for the week of July 12, when J. F. Shea, county board chairman, and other county officials are expected to be on hand.

Asphaltum paint has been brushed over a large part of the surface of the concrete structure, placed there to keep the concrete from staining the Bedford limestone.

100 Men Employed For the last two weeks between 95 and 100 men have been busily engaged on the structure. Mr. Sandstedt said, but as soon as the sixth floor is poured he predicted a cut in the number of workers required.

At present, he said, the carpenters on the job are nearly done with forms and framing. The outside Bedford stone will be set according to a shop drawing and every stone is numbered, to be fitted in a particular spot.

This week the heating contractors have been busy, and ventilators have been installed with ducts in the basement. Much plumbing also was installed this week.

Wide concrete stairs have been installed in the skeleton structure up to the third floor, and steel stairs and a ladder permit workmen to reach the top floors.

Plans were made Wednesday to pour concrete for the driveways which will extend over the coal bunkers and the well equipment. Mr. Sandstedt said. The east ramp for the driveway will also be poured, he said, and this will cover a large storage room.

Damp Proof Walls Damp proofing has already been put on about 80 per cent of the basement walls and about 50 per cent of the basement walls have been back-filled.

On the third floor the outlines of the good-sized municipal courtroom and county courtroom are taking form, and the two elevators, one for passengers and the other for use by the county jail, will operate side by side next to the stairs.

Two big record rooms for all the county's records are taking form in the basement. These will house all documents from the courts as well as other data, and will be completely fireproof. Mr. Sandstedt stated that even if Oshkosh and Winnebago county increase their population many times over, plenty of room will exist for the records in the new building.

One feature of the building will be the large open plaza on the west side of the building, which will be uncovered. Below this slab concrete will be the county garage. Boilers and smokestack already have been placed in the northwest section of the basement.

Receive Requests for Inspection of Fields

(Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau) Oshkosh—R. C. Heffernan, Winnebago county agent, reports he is getting many requests for inspection of grain fields to make the crop eligible for registered or certified seed. Field inspection for certification will be done by the county agent's office if farmers will notify him. He urges that all county farmers who want their grain fields inspected send in their request as soon as possible to the county agent's office in the postoffice building.

Plan Formal Opening Of Kurlstorf Gardens

Menasha—The formal opening of the new Kurlstorf Gardens owned by Howard F. Merrill will be held Friday, Saturday, and Sunday nights, June 25, 26, and 27. An elaborate troupe and other entertainers will perform during the three evenings.

Merrill founded his business in July of 1931. Since that time, seven additions have been made and it now accommodates 300 people. A new driveway leading into the grounds has been built and a new room is erected.

CHECKS ARRIVE

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau Oshkosh—Twenty-one more 1935 conservation checks arrived this week at the county agent's office. R. C. Heffernan said today. Farmers, whose checks are now at the office, have been notified and will be able to get them Friday, June 25. Mr. Heffernan said that only fifteen checks remain to be received at the office for county farmers who cooperated with the program in 1935.

Even Children's Suits Hew To Style Line

FOR COMPANY CURTISIES. Garnet velvet ribbon trims this Sunday best dress made of one of the new sheer cotton fabrics designed by children. Patterned with dancing dolls, the frock has a square neck, a gored skirt and tricky wing-like sleeves.

FOR SAND SUNNING. This sun suit is hand-knitted of mererized knitting and crochet cotton. For the most part it's light tan. The edging, buttons and the fish, however, are in bright blue. Soft white ropes form the halter neck.

These two sun suits, also cut from fabrics designed by children, are meant for such arduous undertakings as hide-and-seek and digging in the backyard. The suit at the left is splattered with hat-topped musical instruments. It has circular pieces of fabric, finished with elastic bands, attached to each leg. The other suit shows big fat cats fishing for goldfish—using their tails as hook and line. Its big organdy bow holds the panties in place and adds a dress-up touch.

District Attorney Warns Against Pinball Games

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau Oshkosh—Final warning to owners of pinball machines and operators of taverns and business places in Winnebago county was issued today by Lewis C. Magnusen, district attorney.

Following closely on the state supreme court ruling of Justice Joseph Martin, Monday, that the ruling "means the end of these machines under the Milwaukee ordinance," District Attorney Magnusen stated that a reasonable time has been allowed operators of pinball machines in Winnebago county to remove the machines.

Justice Martin's opinion called attention to the law which forbids "machines which money is or may be played or paid upon chance, or upon the action of such a device." He further stated: "It is constructed and operated to appear to the gambling instinct. Chance is the dominating element that determines the result of the game."

District Attorney Magnusen stated he had taken note of the influx of pinball machines into Winnebago County in the past few weeks, undoubtedly caused by the ban in Milwaukee and other counties. He said, emphatically, he would prosecute operators and owners of pinball machines of any description which violated the law in any respect, by paying chips or trade.

Three convictions on pinball machines, and several on slot machines already have been obtained by District Attorney Magnusen since he first announced the law would be enforced on gambling devices at theaters, termed "mass gambling," in a recent decision by the Illinois Supreme Court. Mr. Magnusen said that as long as no violation of the law could be proven, and a complaint made, his office would not enter into this phase of the situation.

Commission Calls For Arguments on Plant at Menasha

Also Orders Upward Revision of Telephone Rates at Manawa

Madison—The public service commission issued orders today authorizing municipal utility construction projects to cost nearly $100,000, revising rates of Manawa and Commonweal Telephone exchange, reducing Shawano rates, and calling for arguments on the locality of Menasha's municipal electric plant serving a large industrial plant.

The commission authorized the following projects: Milwaukee—$17,500 relaying water mains of Twenty-fifth street from W. St. Paul avenue to W. Graves street and on W. Graves from N. Twenty-fifth to N. Thirtieth streets.

Richland Center—$28,000 laying 2,800 feet of 30-inch pipe line to conduct water to the electric plant engine for steam condensation.

Spring Valley—$4,000 for $9,000 nation water storage reservoir.

Tigerton—$22,100 additional expense validated for construction of water works; original cost estimate $50,000.

Reduction at Shawano The commission ordered an $11,000 annual reduction in Shawano electric utility rates because of excessive earnings. New rate schedules, effective January 1, 1938, for city and rural home users, will be effective after next meter readings.

The Manawa Telephone company, designated as the first phone utility in the state to furnish telephones and instruments without extra charge, was authorized to increase its rates $650 a year because of low earnings.

The commission permitted the Commonweal Telephone company to increase its rates $117 a year on Jackson and Newburg rural customers switched at West Bend by the Wisconsin Telephone company.

Arguments in Week Chief Examiner W. A. Anderson said the commission would hear arguments in a week on an appeal of a legal point raised by counsel for the Wisconsin Michigan Power company at a hearing on plans of the Menasha electric plant to serve the Marathon Paper Mill's company.

The hearing was on an alternative proposal of the city utility to install either a 2,600-horsepower unit or a 3,500-horsepower unit, steam generating plant and to present Diesel generating equipment only when needed to meet peak loads.

Attorney V. B. Wake of Milwaukee objected to the larger installation. He said its purpose is to render the utility to serve the paper mill and that the municipal plant has not legal right to do so under an acquisition agreement made 25 years ago whereby the private utility would continue to serve all customers in Neenah with a demand of more than 25 kilowatts.

Suggests Plan for Cost Of County Fire Service

Post-Crescent Oshkosh Bureau Oshkosh—The question of whether the Oshkosh Fire department equipment should be sent outside the city in response to calls from county institutions and farm residence, and the manner in which the city would be paid has brought forth many suggestions.

First move was made by Mayor C. A. Wiechering, when he wrote the Winnebago county institutions offering to give fire department service at $300 per call. He admitted at the recent council meeting he had received no answers to his offer.

In a letter sent out Wednesday to county supervisors, Rud. F. Kriz, Oshkosh comptroller, suggested service be rendered county buildings at the same rate paid by Oshkosh taxpayers, about $333 for each thousand dollars the buildings are assessed.

He calls attention to the fact that fire protection represents property that belongs to the Oshkosh municipality corporation and asserts a city official or the council has no authority to "dole out this property promiscuously."

Comptroller Kriz charges that in the past Oshkosh officials have been giving away fire protection to the county at the rate of $4,000 to $5,000 per year.

Admitting the city of Oshkosh has an equity of about 47 per cent in the county buildings, Mr. Kriz points out they are operated and controlled by separate boards and commissions and he declares the responsibility of furnishing fire protection rests with these boards.

No Obligation "It is no obligation of the city of Oshkosh," Mr. Kriz states, "and it is a crime to have the Oshkosh taxpayer furnish it without compensation."

Advocating that county institutions should pay the same proportion of fire protection cost as citizens of Oshkosh, Mr. Kriz computed the following amount should be charged per year:

Winnebago county buildings, valued at $340,439.25, would be charged $1,433.35; Sunnyview sanatorium, valued at $142,421.55, charge $474.26; fair grounds buildings, valued at $90,800, charge $302.26; and state institutions in the county, valued at $500,000, charge $1,665.

Mr. Kriz estimated that if Oshkosh continues to furnish this service free, the annual gift of the taxpayers of Oshkosh to the county would total $3,874.97. He states in his letter that figures of valuation are the minimum, and that personal and land values are not included, while the Oshkosh taxpayer pays the total assessed valuation.

The Oshkosh comptroller suggests to county authorities that some satisfactory proposition be worked out and the parties involved be promptly notified so they may determine whether they want fire protection and will pay for it in advance, or carry their own risk.

St. Mary's Permitted To Use Football Field

Menasha—Permission to use the Butte des Morts football field during the coming season has been granted St. Mary High school by the Menasha Board of Education. Because of improvement work under way at the municipal ball park, the field there will not be ready this autumn. The first schedules of the two local schools will not conflict.

The appearance of the high school band to represent the city at the Junior Chamber of Commerce festival in Appleton July 3 has also been sanctioned by the board.

Special Service to Close Bible School

Neenah—St. Paul's English Lutheran church Bible school will close its two weeks' sessions Sunday morning with a special service at 9 o'clock under the direction of the Rev. Richard Roth, assistant pastor. The junior catechism class will be examined and presented with diplomas. Each department of the vacation school Bible class will present some part of the program. About 180 were enrolled.

Chinese Girls Privileged to Woo

When They Find Prospective Hubbies They Tie Them Up With Rope

Kweiyang, Kweichow Province, China—(AP)—Girls openly chase the boys in the Miao tribe in China. Living in the interior, the Miaos practice what amounts to trial marriage. Girls have perfect freedom in choosing their husbands and parents encourage love affairs.

When farm work is slack, whole villages gather to sing love songs and to dance. The young men play romantic tunes on reed organs while the girls, wearing silver jewelry and their most elaborate clothes, dance in a circle around them. As the atmosphere grows romantic, the men run away and hide and the girls chase them.

When a girl finds the man she is looking for, she ties him up in colored ropes and brings him back to the village green. Then the playing and dancing start all over, with the girls being chased this time.

Marriages are arranged after a trial marriage. The man's family sends in a cash dowry. The girl's family who can enter the wedding only after repeated refusal.

The marriage itself is simple. The girl and her family walk to the groom's home. After three days of feasting and dancing the bride goes home with her parents. The girl has a child a year later and her husband's home.

Kaukauna Youths Defeat Kimberly In Play Contests

Win Four of Six Events in Contests at Library Grounds

Kaukauna — Youthful athletes from Kaukauna outshone their neighbors from Kimberly as they won four of six events in a contest that included softball, tennis and horseshoe Thursday morning at the library grounds. Boys from 13 to 17 years old competed, and Clifford Kemp, recreational director, was in charge.

Kaukauna won the softball game 13-6 by taking a 3-run lead in the first inning and adding to their lead consistently through the game, so that they never were in danger. The Kaws took one tennis match and lost one, and garnered two victories in horseshoe while they lost one match.

Jack Winn, Kaukauna, won his tennis match from Lytle Laanen, two straight sets, but John Barrand evened the score for Kimberly by defeating Sylvanus Grizon in straight sets.

Win Two Sets
In the horseshoe, pitching Lee Lambie and William Alger won for Kaukauna, while George Reichelt lost. Lambie defeated Barrand, two out of three. Alger won in straight games from G. Sieder. Reichelt lost to Charles Vanderzanden in two straight games.

In the baseball game Sherman Powers struck out 11 Kimberly batters and held them to 6 runs as his team mates gave him a comfortable margin on which to work, by scoring in every inning but the fourth. Kimberly garnered four runs in the eighth inning in their only flash of power, but by that time the game was already too far gone for them to save it. J. Fieweger led the Kimberly attack with a home run, a double and a single.

Lineups for the two teams were: Kaukauna—S. Andrejicki, c.; S. Powers, p.; L. Lambie, 1b.; J. Sanders, 2b.; C. Glordana, 3b.; J. Schuman, ss.; H. Walsh, and R. Walsh, rs.; W. Alger, lf.; A. Meltnier and C. Watson, cf.; F. Fernal and C. Egan, rf.; Kimberly—P. Van Dyke, c.; T. Gloudemans, p.; A. Poppe, 1b.; J. Fieweger, 2b.; V. La Blanc, 3b.; D. Gaffney, ss.; C. Siebers, rs.; C. Vanderzanden, lf.; C. Behrendt, cf.; J. Wyenberg, rf.

Social Items

Kaukauna—Twenty-two young people were entertained this afternoon at a party at LaFollette park in honor of Paul Gurnee, on his ninth birthday. The children met at the Gurnee home at 2:30 and then went to the park. All were provided with special caps for the occasion. Games were played and lunch served.

The annual picnic for members of the Ladies Aid society and the Sunday school of the First Congregational church was held at LaFollette park yesterday afternoon. Games were played and a picnic luncheon served. The picnic was arranged by Mrs. H. Weitenbach, Miss Maude Haas, and Miss Dorothy Mooney. The Ladies Aid society will hold one more meeting before fall, that one in July.

About 200 persons attended the garden party held by Circle No. 3 of the Social Union of the Methodist church on the lawns of the W. F. Ashe and Ben C. Prugh residences Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd Lima, O., who lived at Kaukauna 14 years ago, were guests of the Social Union at the affair. Music was furnished by the Rev. C. C. Sanderson on the cello. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Sanderson and Miss Betsy Ashe on the piano.

The last regular meeting of the Eastern Star will be held tonight in the group's meeting rooms on Third street. After this meeting the members will not convene until September.

Miss Mary Heimdl, Freedom, entertained a party of friends on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday early this week. There were played and prizes awarded to Miss Carol Krueger and Miss Lillian Van Hoof. Guests at the party, besides the prize winners, were the Misses Marion Van Vreede, Marguerite Van Vreede, Lauretta Van Rossum, Helen Van Vreede, and Raymond Heimdl, Joseph Van Hoof, Norbert Heimdl, Mark Krueger and Earl Krueger.

Golf Club Plans for Shoot Next Sunday

Kaukauna—A regular Kaukauna Gun club shoot will be held Sunday and a deferred meeting of the board of directors of the club will be held at the same time. William Harwood, president, said today.

The shoot will begin at 10 a. m. and after a noon recess will continue in the afternoon. The meeting of the board of directors will be held before the shoot begins. Friends of gun club members are invited to attend and ammunition will be available at the club house.

MOTORIST FINED

Kaukauna—Joseph Wagonner, Richland Center, paid a fine of $5 and costs of $4.25 in Judge Barney Mitchell's justice court yesterday afternoon for speeding. He was arrested Thursday morning on Lawe street.

The Kaukauna office of the Appleton Post-Crescent is located in the Jules Mertes barbershop on Wisconsin avenue. Don Anderson is the correspondent in charge and the telephone number is 107. Subscribers may call this number until 6:30 in the evening if their papers were not delivered.

PRINCIPALS IN KAUKAUNA MAYORALTY RACE

Mayor John H. Niesen, left above, will be opposed in a special recall election at Kaukauna Thursday, July 8, by Lewis F. Nelson, right, who defeated William G. Gantler in a primary election held yesterday. Nelson polled nearly a 2 to 1 majority over Gantler in the primary. The vote was exceptionally light due to the warm weather and the absence of many residents who are vacationing. (Nelson Photo by Post-Crescent)

Thilmany Squad Defeats Rennickes in Late Rally

Kaukauna—A 4-run rally in the last inning gave Thilmany Mill a 7-4 victory over Rennickes last night on the library grounds and kept them tied with Pantry Lunch for first place in the twilight softball league.

In tonight's game two losers in the first round will meet. They are Kemkes and the South Side Merchants.

Thilmany's went into the last inning trailing 4-3 last night, but the first man up, H. Haupt, singled. C. Kiffe walked, and Saunders got a single, scoring Haupt and Kiffe. Povers got to first on an error. Ruppel's single scored him and Saunders to make it four runs in the inning and enough to win the ball game.

Rennickes took a 3-run lead in the first inning on Kemp's homer, with Saunders and Towelsky on base, and added one more run in the second, but could not score after that. George Block struck out 10 Rennickes batters while Bill Alger struck out three for the losers. Block allowed four hits, Alger five.

SELL RESIDENCE
Kaukauna—The William Voie residence at 317 Doty street was sold last week to Mr. and Mrs. William Appleton, now living at 106 Brotherton street. Voie said today. Opposes Bill to License Wholesale Dealers of Fish

Claims Conservation Committee's Measure Is Unnecessary

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Summary defeat of the conservation committee's wholesale fish dealer's licensing bill because it is "wholly unnecessary and will put a lot of dealers out of business" was recommended to the committee on judiciary of the assembly by Assemblyman Harold A. Lytle (D), Green Bay, Wednesday afternoon.

Declaring that he appeared in opposition to the measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Frank N. Graess of Sturgeon Bay, on behalf of Green Bay wholesalers and fishermen, Lytle pointed out that the bill as now written would forbid dealers from selling certain fish species, even if imported from outside the state, during the Wisconsin closed season for the species.

Since the pike fishing on Green Bay and Lake Michigan has been closed until 1939, and since many dealers in that area sell imported pike, the passage of the bill and the resultant prohibition of such sales would mean losses of "thousands of dollars," Lytle claimed.

He exhibited figures from a Green Bay dealer showing that the dealers in that city alone sell more than 261,000 pounds of pike and pickerel annually.

"We don't see any reason for the bill at all," said Lytle when Assemblyman L. E. Carlson of Bayfield county suggested striking out the provisions which the dealers find objectionable.

To a claim by Frank Graess that the bill is aimed at the elimination of the fish bootleggers, Lytle replied that such elimination can best be achieved by surveillance of the

Ladies Day Will Be Held Wednesday At Kaukauna Club

Kaukauna — Ladies day will be inaugurated at the Kaukauna golf club next Wednesday when the first such meeting is held.

Mrs. Albert Leigh and Miss Dorothy Goldin are in charge of making arrangements for the first of these gatherings. Golf will be played in the afternoon and afterward lunch will be served. Attendance at ladies day is open to the public as well as to members of the golf club, and anyone wishing to attend may obtain information about the occasion from Mrs. Leigh or Miss Goldin. New committees will take charge of each of the meetings on future Wednesdays.

fishermen who take the fish from the water. The fish dealers in his district, he asserted, are legitimate business men who are not foolish enough to run the risk of bootlegging.

Assemblyman Harry Bergen, (P), Siren, maintained that the bill will merely write into the statutes orders of the conservation department which have been effective for some time so that penalties for violations may be imposed.

LAST NIGHT'S SCORE
Dale 19, Shiocton 6.

NEW LONDON—Dale took its place in the 3-way tie for first position in the Outagamie County league when it ran away from Shiocton to the tune of 19 to 6 in a listless, drawn-out 7 1/2-inning game under the lights at the city ball park here last night. The contest was a postponed meeting. Threatening weather and a slow-moving ball game drained the bleachers of a crowd of more than 300 when at 11 o'clock the seventh inning threatened to last as long as the first which occupied nearly an hour. When Shiocton failed to make two hits count in the first of the eighth inning after a seven-run riot by Dale in the seventh inning, both teams decided to call it a ball game and go home with the crowd.

Dale sluggers had an opportunity to improve their batting averages before a varied assortment of Shiocton pitchers. They accumulated a total of 15 hits. Smokey Lathrop started on the mound for Shiocton but after allowing five hits in the first three innings was relieved by Miller. Lathrop walked four and fanned five but the team as a whole failed to click, picking up a total of five errors by the end of the game.

Ornholt worked behind the plate for two innings and Conlon finished the game, giving his post to Schimke. Lathrop played left field while McGlinn retired to the bench. When Dale started pounding Miller in the seventh inning Van Straten, regular Shiocton shortstop, tried his hand at pitching and all together the Dale club scored seven runs. Nearly every batter came up twice.

Kaufman was scheduled to hurl for Dale but an injury to his leg during batting practice prior to the game kept him on the bench for six innings. Cross hurled his second game of the season until his arm weakened in the sixth and Shiocton batters gathered three runs in that and the successive inning. Kaufman finished the seventh inning.

The Shiocton pitching trio passed a lot of balls which, combined with poor support in all sections of the field, made the league leaders look bad. The Dale club played snappy ball. Dave Freiburger counting the only errors when he muffed two catches. He made up for it with fast work in the infield.

Melvin (Emil) Glock, a New London lad of high school basketball fame, playing first base for Dale, took the stellar role of the evening. He hit a home run over the right field fence in the third inning and was on the starting end of two double plays, completing one unassisted at first base in the fifth inning. He also brought in three runs with a series of stolen bases. The only other extra-base hits were doubles by McHugh, Miller and Van Straten.

SHIOCTON TO MEET CREEKERS
Shiocton baseball team will get a chance to out Black Creek from the triple tie in league standings Sunday when the clubs clash at Shiocton in the weekend's outstanding battle.

The Shioctons are expected to depend upon Smokey Lathrop for the major part of their hurling Sunday.

Kimberly Papermakers Wallop Seymour, 17 to 0

KIMBERLY—Scoring seven runs in the first inning off six hits, a passed ball, walk and a couple errors that should have retired the side, Kimberly Papermakers went out and walloped Seymour here last night, 17 to 0. Wanie started the game for the invaders, gave way to Wurdinger. Wanie failed to finish the first frame while Bauer worked through the sixth. Seymour found playing under lights more than a little trouble which accounted in part for the first inning blowup. Catcher Har-

MARION—Marion baseball entry in the Pigeon River Valley league will go to Clintonville for its game next Sunday afternoon prepared to add the lowly Truck City team to its list of victims. Marion is tied with Symco for first place in standings. The latter is scheduled to meet Maple Valley at Maple Valley. In the other game Embarrass will entertain Bear Creek and is pointing to get even for a defeat suffered several weeks ago.

with Miller available if necessary. The Creekers have been finding another Miller just about all they need in the way of hurlers. The other big game of the week-end will have Greenville Merchants showing on the Greenville Grange diamond as the feature of a Sunday program at the Grange. The Grangers have a 3-0 rating in standings with four wins and four defeats while the Merchants are a step behind with three wins and five defeats.

Although the Merchants have been showing a new hurler every so often there is reason to believe that Cliff Burton will do the pitching and brother Cy the catching. The Grangers will depend on Kuzinski with M. Schultz behind the ey Hartjes of the invaders also found the heat too much and he wilted out of the picture about the end of the fifth and Krake replaced him.

Seymour opened the game in an impressive manner when the first man up singled and the next two beat out bunts to load the bases. Behr then bore down and retired the side without a run. Several other times during the game Seymour got men on the sacks but nothing came of it.

Kimberly showed a revamped lineup with Baldy Hawk at second base and getting two hits in four tries. One was a homer when the ball was lost in the grass. Hal Schroeder made his first appearance with the Papermakers and worked at short with Tuffy Horn at third in the spot abdicated by Butts Strick.

Dale is favored because of an impressive 8 to 3 win over Black Creek last week and it won last night over Shiocton.

Storti Completes His 53rd Straight Game Without Error

Columbus, O. —(AP)—Lin Storti of the Milwaukee Brewers completed his 53rd consecutive game of flawless fielding at the hot corner last night, and fans wondered how far he would go beyond the previous American association record of 34 successive games without a boot.

Storti passed the old league mark in 1927 by Sammy Bohne, of Minneapolis, on June 5—and so far has shown no signs of letting up.

He made his last bobble April 23 in a game with St. Paul. Last year Storti fielded .939. He is hitting at .318.

Moose softballers won their sixth game in the Fraternal league last night when they defeated the Knights of Columbus for the second time this week. The score was 15 to 12.

The Moose held an 11 to 2 lead at the end of the first four frames. In the fifth the Knights counted four times and the Moose twice. In the sixth the Knights became dangerous with six runs and it took two runs by the Moose in the eighth to give them a respectable margin of victory.

Gebheim hit two homers for the victors while Mullen, Rooney and King of the Knights got triples.

Compete Against Best in Country Starting Monday

Jerry Clifford, Former H. S. Champ, Leads Oshkosh Group

NEENAH—Valley entrants in the fourteenth annual Fox Valley Tennis tournament to be staged at the Doty tennis club courts from June 28 through July 6 were announced yesterday by Hugh Strange, Jr., president of the club.

Outstanding in the galaxy of net stars entered in the meet is Bobby Riggs, Los Angeles, whose name went down in tennis record books alongside that of Big Bill Tilden and Bryan Grant Tuesday when he won the national clay courts singles championship for the second consecutive year. Tilden was the winner from 1922 to 1927 and Grant won in 1934 and '35.

Riggs, ranked No. 4 in the national, is a colorful racket wielder and is confident of winning the Fox Valley which he considers the finest in the country. He defeated Frankie Parker, ranked No. 2 player, three times last year and will defend his Kentucky Grass Court championship in July.

Cooke is Entrant

Elwood Cooke, Portland, Ore., has also registered with the committee. Cooke is an outstanding netter and is ranked with the best in the country. He defeated Grant in the finals of the Hot Springs tournament recently. He also scored victories over Wayne Sabin and Gilbert Hall in the same meet. Many other top notchers will appear in the local tournament including a Russian prince, George Scherbatoff.

Representing the Fox river valley will be the following players: Art Parker, Elmer Galloway, Lyle Fulton, John Schmeier, John Canavan, Paul Albrecht, Tom Young, Dave Ryan, Bill Nasu, Bud Banta, Jack Leimberg, Fred Yaley, Joe Fie-wacker, Bob Kelly and Bill Strange, all of Neenah and Menasha. Oshkosh entries include Ralph Haertli, Jerry Clifford, Oscar Arndt, Bud Schreiber, Bud Kimberly, Bud Anger and Hub Anger. Entries from Appleton are Tom Catlin, Mark Catlin and Joe Koffend.

List Committees
Heading the various tournament committees is Hugh Strange, tournament chairman and head referee. William Nash, Jr., will handle the receipts. Other members of the club who are on committees are: program, Victor Burnstein; housing, Mrs. Paul Strange; gate, Mrs. O. M. Thompson.

Seating, Currie Smith; publicity, Bill Nash; draw, Hugh Strange, Jr.; Art Parker, Bill Nash, Ollie Thompson; umpire, George Leimberg; referees, Bob Kelly, Greg Smith, Har-ger, Nick Gilbert; presentation of cups and trophies, Jr. J. P. Canavan; honorary referees, John Bergstrom and Mrs. T. M. Gilbert.

Sweat Popped Off Louis' Brow as Jim Dropped Him

BY EDDIE BRIETZ
NEW YORK—(AP)—If you don't believe that was a clean knockdown Jim Braddock scored over Joe Louis Tuesday night, go to see the slow motion pictures. They show the sweat popping off Louis' brow when Jim hit him. Miss Lou Gehrig has turned thumbs down on a Tarzan role for her Lou, so he will appear as a two-gun man in "Boots and Saddles" to be filmed in Hollywood next fall. Walter Kowak the pro golfer, cleaned up $60,000 at Aqueduct the other day and staggered the betting ring. Two thirds of the winnings came when Samt Pierre romped home by five lengths in the opening race at 12 to 1.

Madison Square Garden officials were burned up when Bob Pastor (who is the heavyweight champion of New York state, no less) was introduced from the ring at Chicago the other night. They'll be interested to learn Mike Jacobs isn't about to consider Pastor as a possible challenger for Joe Louis. Bobby Cruikshank, the Richmond golf pro, and Tommy Armour's brother, Sandy, spent the last month of the World war in the same German prison camp. One year later they faced each other in the finals of the Scottish amateur championship. Harry Lenny, who told Joe Louis how to dodge Jim Braddock's right, is the first white man ever to work in the bomber's corner.

Mike Jacobs may take Joe Louis on a South American tour. Note to all kids: Benny Huffman, the young catcher, who may get Rolly Hensley's job on the Browns, jumped to the majors from Ray Dean's baseball school. Trainers out at Aqueduct are upset because the stable hands, grooms and attendants are threatening to go on strike. Dizzy Dean okayed Van Mungo as the starting pitcher for the National league all stars which just about makes it unanimous. So far, Dean has a 97 to 95 lead over Mungo for National league strike out honors.

Two young heavyweights you ought to watch are Alex Kettles of Sound Bend and Max Roesch of Dallas. Freddy Fitzsimmons of the Dodgers is hanging up a rep as one of the fastest working pitchers in the majors. His last two wins over the Pirates were scored in 1:45 and 1:58. Lou Gehrig isn't laying out the homers like he used to. Seems to be concentrating on singles and doubles to win the American league championship. The International league is getting swanky and has moved from Madison to Fifth Avenue. A poll of West Point Cadets shows the Yankees are the favorite ball club up there.

Max (Boo Boo) Hoff is going back into business as a boxing promoter in Philly. His opener, June 28, will feature Chino Alvarez of Tampa, and Charley Burns. Al Schacht was so hot at Binghamton, N. Y. the other day the club owners voted him a bonus in addition to his regular guarantee. Nice wowing, Al. The A. A. A. contest board has started a move to have crash helmets used by all drivers in the 300-mile Roosevelt speedway races July 3. Jimmy Braddock came back to town today and was hailed as a real champ, which he is—in anybody's book.

POSTPONE SALE
Moraga, Calif. —(AP)—Scheduled sale of St. Mary's college, widely known in football circles, at foreclosure proceedings was postponed until July 23 to allow bondholders additional time to place bonds on deposit with their committee.

Kaukauna Youths Defeat Kimberly In Play Contests

Win Four of Six Events in Contests at Library
Grounds

Kaukauna — Youthful athletes from Kaukauna outshone their neighbors from Kimberly as they won four of six events in a contest that included softball, tennis and horseshoe Thursday morning at the library grounds. Boys from 13 to 17 years old competed, and Clifford Kemp, recreational director, was in charge.

Kaukauna won the softball game 13-6 by taking a 3-run lead in the first inning and adding to their lead consistently through the game, so that they never were in danger. The Kaws took one tennis match and lost one, and garnered two victories in horseshoe while they lost one match.

Jack Winn, Kaukauna, won his tennis match from Lyle Langenberg, two straight sets, but John Barrand evened the score for Kimberly by defeating Sylvanus Grignon in straight sets.

Win Two Sets

In the horseshoe pitching Lee Lambie and William Alger won for Kaukauna, while George Reichelt lost Lambie defeated Barrand, two sets out of three. Alger won in straight games from G. Sieder. Reichelt lost to Charles Vanderzanden in two straight games.

In the baseball game Sherman Powers struck out 11 Kimberly batters and held them to 6 runs as his team mates gave him a comfortable margin on which to work, by scoring in every inning but the third. Kimberly garnered four runs in the eighth inning in their only flash of power, but by that time the game was already too far gone for them to save it. J. Flewager led the Kimberly attack with a home run, a double and a single.

Lineups for the two teams were: Kaukauna—S. Andrejki, C. S. Powers, P. L. Lambie, 1b; J. Schumacher, 2b; C. Giordana, 3b; J. Schumacher and W. Peterson, ss; H. Walsh and R. Walsh, rs; W. Alger, lf; A. Meitner and C. Watson, cf; F. Fernald and C. Egan, rf; Kimberly—P. Van Dyke, c; T. Gloudeans, p; A. Poppe, 1b; J. Flewager, 2b; V. La Blanc, 3b; D. Gaffney, ss; C. Siebers, rs; C. Vanderzanden, lf; C. Behrendt, cf; J. Wyenberg, rf.

Social Items

Kaukauna—Twenty-two young people were entertained this afternoon at a party at LaFollette park in honor of Paul Gurnee on his ninth birthday. The children met at the Gurnee home at 2:30 and then went to the park. All were provided with special caps for the occasion. Games were played and lunch served.

The annual picnic for members of the Ladies Aid society and the Sunday school of the First Congregational church was held at LaFollette park yesterday afternoon. Games were played and a picnic luncheon served. The picnic was arranged by Mrs. H. Weisenbach, Miss Maude Haas, and Miss Dorothy Mooney. The Ladies Aid society will hold one more meeting before fall, that one in July.

About 200 persons attended the garden party held by Circle No. 3 of the Social Union of the Methodist church on the lawns of the W. F. Ashe and Ben C. Prugh residences Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lloyd, Lima, O., who lived at Kaukauna 14 years ago, were guests of the Social Union at the affair. Music was furnished by the Rev. G. C. Sanderson on the cello. He was accompanied by Miss Ruth Sanderson and Miss Betsy Ashe on the piano.

The last regular meeting of the Eastern Star will be held tonight in the group's meeting rooms on Third street. After this meeting the members will not convene until September.

Miss Mary Heindl, Freedom, entertained a party of friends on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday early this week. Dice was played and prizes awarded to Miss Carol Krueger and Miss Lillian Van Hoof. Guests at the party, besides the prize winners, were the Misses Marion Van Vreede, Marguerite Van Vreede, Lauretta Van Rossum, Helen Van Vreede, and Raymond Heindl, Joseph Van Hoof, Norbert Heindl, Mark Krueger and Earl Krueger.

Gun Club Plans for Shoot Next Sunday

Kaukauna—A regular Kaukauna Gun Club shoot will be held Sunday and a deferred meeting of the board of directors of the club will be held at the same time. Willam Harwood, president, said today.

The shoot will begin at 10 a. m. and after a noon recess will continue in the afternoon. The meeting of the board of directors will be held before the shoot begins. Friends of gun club members are invited to attend and ammunition will be available at the club house.

MOTORIST FINED

Kaukauna—Joseph Wagonier, Richland Center, paid a fine of $5 and costs of $4.75 in Judge Barney Mitchell's justice court yesterday afternoon for speeding. He was arrested Thursday morning on Lawe street.

The Kaukauna office of the Appleton Post-Crescent is located in the Jules Mertes barbershop on Wisconsin avenue. Don Anderson is the correspondent in charge and the telephone number is 107. Subscribers may call this number until 6:30 in the evening if their papers were not delivered.

PRINCIPALS IN KAUKAUNA MAYORALTY RACE

Mayor John H. Niesen, left above, will be opposed in a special recall election at Kaukauna Thursday, July 8, by Lewis F. Nelson, right, who defeated William G. Gantler in a primary election held yesterday. Nelson polled nearly a 2 to 1 majority over Gantler in the primary. The vote was exceptionally light due to the warm weather and the absence of many residents who are vacationing. (Nelson Photo by Post-Crescent)

Thilmany Squad Defeats Rennickses in Late Rally

Kaukauna—A 4-run rally in the last inning gave Thilmany Mill a 7-4 victory over Rennickses last night on the library grounds and kept them tied with Pantry Lunch for first place in the twilight softball league.

In tonight's game two losers in the first round will meet. They are Kemkes and the South Side Merchants.

Thilmany's went into the last inning trailing 4-3 last night, but the first man up, H. Haupt, singled, C. Kiffe walked, and Saunders got a single, scoring Haupt and Kiffe. Powers got to first on an error, and Ruppert's single scored him and Saunders to make it four runs in the inning and enough to win the ball game.

Rennickses took a 3-run lead in the first inning on Kemp's homer, with Saunders and Towsley on base, and added one more run in the second, but could not score after that. George Block struck out 10 Rennickses batters, while Bill Alger struck out three for the losers. Block allowed four hits, Alger five.

SELL RESIDENCE
Kaukauna—The William Voie residence at 317 Doty street was sold last week to Mr. and Mrs. William Appleton, now living at 106 Brothman street, Voie said today. The Voies will move to Appleton, where they will live temporarily, on about July 6. They intend to build a home in Kaukauna this summer and to return here as soon as it is finished.

Plan to Organize New French Class Under Prof. Belle

Kaukauna—A new class in French will be organized at the Kaukauna Vocational school Monday night, Prof. Richard Belle, instructor, said last night.

The French class, a WPA project, is offered to anyone who wishes to attend, and Prof. Belle urged those desiring to take French, whether elementary or advanced, to come to the Vocational school at 7 o'clock Monday evening. Elementary French was taught twice a week, on Monday and Tuesday nights, during the school year, and the new class is being offered to give students who are home from universities and colleges an opportunity to take a French course while they are on vacation, the instructor said.

Postpone Decision On Fishermen's Party

Kaukauna—The question of whether or not to sponsor a public outing or fishermen's party will be taken up at the July 16 meeting of the group, they decided at their meeting last night.

About 65 persons turned out for the meeting and supper held at the gun club grounds yesterday. A shoot by gun club members was held before the supper.

Opposes Bill to License Wholesale Dealers of Fish

Claims Conservation Committee's Measure Is Unnecessary

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Summary defeat of the conservation committee's wholesale fish dealer's licensing bill because it is "wholly unnecessary and will put a lot of dealers out of business" was recommended to the committee on judiciary of the assembly by Assemblyman Harold A. Lytle (D), Green Bay, Wednesday afternoon. Declaring that he appeared in opposition to the measure, sponsored by Assemblyman Frank N. Graess of Sturgeon Bay, on behalf of Green Bay wholesalers and fishermen, Lytle pointed out that the bill as now written would forbid dealers from selling certain fish species, even if imported from outside the state, during the Wisconsin closed season for the species.

Since the fish fishing on Green Bay and Lake Michigan has been closed since 1939, and since many dealers in that area sell imported pike, the passage of the bill and the resultant prohibition of such sales would mean losses of "thousands of dollars," Lytle claimed.

He exhibited figures from a Green Bay dealer showing that the dealers in that city alone sell more than 261,000 pounds of pike and pickerel annually.

"We don't see any reason for the bill at all," said Lytle when Assemblyman L. F. Carlson of Bayfield county suggested striking out the provisions which the dealers find objectionable.

To a claim by Frank Graess that the bill is aimed at the elimination of the fish bootleggers, Lytle replied that such elimination can best be achieved by surveillance of the

Ladies Day Will Be Held Wednesday At Kaukauna Club

Kaukauna — Ladies day will be inaugurated at the Kaukauna golf club next Wednesday when the first such meeting is held.

Mrs. Albert Leigh and Miss Dorothy Goldin are in charge of making arrangements for the first of these gatherings. Golf will be played in the afternoon and afterward lunch will be served. Attendance at ladies day is open to the public as well as to members of the golf club, and anyone wishing to attend may obtain information about the occasion from Mrs. Leigh or Miss Goldin. New committees will take charge of each of the meetings on future Wednesdays.

Hold Last Rites for Kaukauna Resident

Kaukauna—Funeral services for Otto Schmidt were held at the Fargo Funeral home at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, the Rev. G. C. Sanderson in charge. Burial was at the Kelso cemetery.

Bearers were Edward Freeman, Theodore Heiting, William Heiting, Owen Roberts, Walter Haas and George Anderson.

LEAGUE GAMES

Kaukauna—The Pirates defeated the Cubs 35-26, and the Tigers defeated the Sox 31-6 in games played in the boys' junior softball league at the library grounds yesterday.

fishermen who take the fish from the water. The fish dealers in his district, he asserted, are legitimate business men who are not foolish enough to run the risk of bootlegging.

Assemblyman Harry Berggren, (D), Siren, maintained that the bill will merely write into the statutes orders of the conservation department which have been effective for some time so that penalties for violation may be imposed.

Cronin Credits Sox Spurt to His Two New Catchers

Boston Team Has Won Eight of Nine Starts: Cubs Win

Associated Press Sports Writer

JOE FERRELL will just love this, but he'll have to blame it on Joe Cronin.

It seems (to Cronin) that the sudden surge of his Red Sox—eight wins in nine starts—dates from the trade that sent Ferrell to Washington, and that a large part of the recent success is due to the fact that Ferrell's successors at backstop are getting more stuff from the Boston pitchers.

How Joe has figured it out is a mystery. In eight years up there, Rick has generally been regarded as somewhat better than a green hand among the big-time mask-and-pad boys. Yet Joe claims that the erudite Moe Berg, who was never good enough to take Ferrell's job, or Gene Desautels, fresh up from the minors, are bringing the business out of the throwers in better style.

It's that, and balance, Joe said today, that has shot the Sox into the first division.

Doc McNair's great job at second base and the return of Flit Cramer to make a "kreat" outfield are two of the larger factors that have Joe wearing the rose-colored glasses.

Blank Tigers, 9-0

After topping the White Sox in four straight and the Indians in two out of three, they've just wound up taking two in a row from the Tigers, whitewashing the Detroit 9-0 yesterday behind the rejuvenated elbowing of Lefty Grove, now boasting a winning streak of three.

Since the Yankees, after spotting the St. Louis Browns six runs in three innings, came from behind to club out a 9-6 win, this defeat for the Tigers boosted the world champions' league lead to three full games, and left the third-place White Sox only one game back of Detroit. The White Sox, like every other club in the loop, had a lot of fun with the weak and woeful Athletics and posted a 7-2 triumph.

Chicago's Cubs retained their one-time National League lead by banging out four hits for as many runs in an eighth-inning spurge, to whip the Giants 10-5 in the "rubber" game of their series. The Cardinals bunched all their run-making into three big innings and trampled the Brooklyn Dodgers 13-3, thereby boosting their second-place margin over the Giants to a full game.

Lou Fette, the new "old dependable" of the Sox, stopped the Pirates 9-6, ending Boston's 11-game losing streak, and the Cincinnati Reds took the Phillies' sixth-place standing by whipping the Quaker City clubbers 6-4, with the aid of Lefty Grissom's one-inning rescue hurling.

Kohals. Forsters to Battle Under Lights

Kohals Tavern softball team, which won the first round title in the American City league, but which received a rude bump the other evening when it dropped the first game of the second round, will clash with the Forster Taverns under lights at the Forster diamond tonight. The game will start at 8:30.

GRAPHIC GOLE

SENSITIZING THE PUTTING TOUCH

The golfer, who has not given particular attention to the position of the thumb and forefinger of the right hand in his putting grip, may be overlooking a point that could easily mean improved accuracy on the greens. Together these two digits afford a delicate sense of touch, adjust the strength of the stroke and add crispness to the shot.

Jones' method of gripping the putter is shown in the illustrations above, the forefinger and thumb being delicately attuned to float the clubhead into the ball. Only the first joint of Jones' thumb touches the shaft. Thus, as it happens is an important factor. The first joint is quite sensitive to the clubhead's path and speed, is in fact the gauging quality of the putts delicacy and length. Putting control lies to a great extent here, a necessity in all putting and particularly on fast greens.

Johnny Farrell employs much the same procedure as Jones except that in his case the tip of the thumb is pressed into the shaft. Those players who press the whole length of their thumb upon the shaft sacrifice a great deal of touch by this method. Make sure the grip is as light as possible at this point to make the control delicate.

Neenah, Oshkosh To Clash Sunday

Game Features Northern Valley Play: Appleton At Grand Chute

NORTHERN VALLEY LEAGUE

| W | L | Pct. |

| Green Bay | 4 | .300 |

With a chance to tie for the Northern Valley league lead, the Neenah Merchants invade Oshkosh Sunday to battle the league leading Cab nine in the feature game of the week.

Neenah won a twin bill from the strong Menasha Eagles last week behind the steady pitching of Orville Schultz and Lefty Jerome to come within one game of the league-leading Oshkosh club. Schultz, probably will be Manager Mary Olson's choice to start for Neenah against Oshkosh with Jerome in reserve. Game will do the receiving. For Oshkosh Alwin will do the call for mound duty with Dobish behind the plate. Alwin has won five straight since taking over the pitching duties for the leading Oshkosh nine.

Grand Chute will be at home to Appleton. The Appleton nine will depend on Murphy to hurl it to a win over the Chuteites with De Young catching, Berch and Huhn will be the Grand Chute battery.

The Green Bay Thomas Drugs invade Menasha in the other league game. The Drugs have been coming along in fine fashion lately and will be trying hard for a win over the Eagles in order to stay in the race.

Vandenboom and Neckers will be the pomps for Green Bay with Butler Brown and Smarzenski for the Eagles.

There will be a Northern Valley league meeting at Miller's Buffet at Kaukauna, Thursday night, July 1 at 7:00.

Kohals. Forsters to Battle Under Lights

Kohals Tavern softball team, which won the first round title in the American City league, but which received a rude bump the other evening when it dropped the first game of the second round, will clash with the Forster Taverns under lights at the Forster diamond tonight. The game will start at 8:30.

Waukegan Man Wins Illinois Trap Shoot

Chicago—W. Victor Reinders of Waukegan, Wis., held high over all honors today in the preliminary shoot of the Illinois state trapshoot contest.

Joe Tells Mother Public Training Was Just a Show

DETROIT—Joe Louis, the new heavyweight champion of the world, told his mother today that his public training for the titular fight was "just a show" and that his real preparation went on behind the scenes.

The bomber told his story early this morning after his mother, Mrs. Lily Barrow Brooks, had served a bountiful chicken dinner for him with the help of a squad of women from her church circle.

The champion said he saved his secret for his mother. He arrived from Chicago late last night with a tremendous appetite and gave the chicken his first attention.

"I was afraid when I heard those stories from your training camp," his mother said as she awaited Joe's story of his puzzling and unimpressive showing before his bout with Jim Braddock.

"Shouldn't believe those things, mum," Joe said, "cause that was just a show. I didn't want to hurt my hands, so I didn't fight much in camp. I did all my work on the road in the morning."

The champion then confided he had been following the example of Gene Tunney, the former heavyweight king, in some of his secret training routine.

"Every morning on the road I practiced going backward," he said. "Like Tunney did. And I shadow boxed, learning to keep my hands up there. That was the most important thing. What happened at camp was just a show."

MAX MAY MEET JIM
Chicago—(P) Producer Mike Jacobs pulled the curtain on another act of his heavyweight show today and out on the stage—badge, nightstick and all—walked Officer James J. Braddock, late heavyweight champion of the world.

Of course, impresario Jacobs may revise the skit on short notice, equally brief cablegram or a long-distance telephone call. But he insisted that if Max Schmeling hopes to get a crack at the new titleholder, Joe Louis, the German first will have to meet Braddock, which appears to make Joe's lim "police" work to the title he lost this week to the brown bomber.

This was the latest of a series of developments which broke out like a rash from the moment that Louis' right hand tipped Braddock over at Comiskey park Tuesday night.

Others were (1) That Louis has an offer of 42½ per cent of the gate receipts, with a $75,000 guarantee, to meet Jack (Canary) Doyle or Len Harvey in Wembley Stadium, London, next August, and (2) Braddock and Max Baer, the playboy ex-heavyweight champion, will fight in August, either here or in Los Angeles.

Back of the sudden renewed burst of promotional activity on the part of Jacobs—who seems to have the heavy situation well under control—apparently was a desire to do something about the "synthetic championship" battle between Schmeling and Tommy Farr, British titleholder, tentatively set for August 9 at London's White City arena.

Jacobs had planned a joint promotion with General A. C. Critchley of White City to match Farr with the winner of the Louis-Braddock engagement, but the White City group lined up Farr to meet Schmeling for the "title" inferring, of course, that Schmeling was champion by virtue of once knocking out Louis and then being walked out on by Braddock last June 3.

With the idea being that any match involving Louis might "kill" the Farr-Schmeling event Jacobs said he was seriously considering the Louis-Harvey-Doyle offer.

E. W. Teams to Show In Postponed Games

Hilbert—Eastern Wisconsin Baseball league teams will try to wind up the first round of play Sunday when they stage postponed games.

Chilton, tied for first honors with New Holstein, will take on Kiel at the Chilton diamond Sunday afternoon. Kiel has won four and lost three and has a chance to tie with the league leaders.

New Holstein draws the third place Stockbridge team. However, the Brickers are slated in two games Sunday for they meet New Holstein in the afternoon after battling Marytown in the morning. A hard game at Marytown will leave the squad weakened for the New Holstein game.

In the other game Marytown will play at Hilbert in an afternoon contest. Both are out of the title race. Velders, Mt. Calvary and Cleveland have completed their schedules.

The league standings

The leader team in the Riverside Mill league took picks on the Winners in last night's contest at Meador school diamond and all but ran them out of the ward. The score was 23 to 8. Or maybe the heat was the cause of the score.

The Winners counted twice in the first and in the third but the Leaders registered five times in the third to take the lead. The Winners added one run and the Leaders two in the fourth, the Winners two and the Leaders nine in the fifth. The Winners counted once more in the seventh while the Leaders counted twice and then five times in the eighth for good measure.

Clintonville will risk its lead in the Wolf Valley league race at Marion next Sunday against a hard fighting, aggressive aggregation that is apt to cause an upset at any time. Although well down in the club standings, Marion has played good ball in every contest and is certain to come through with a bang-up game at home.

Weyauwega travels to New London for a game that will do much to clarify the closeness of the race that has developed among three or four teams in the circuit. Neopit will make the long trip to Waupaca and Shawano will play at Manitowish.

Because New London and Clintonville were idle last Sunday, the two top trumps in the league remain unchanged. Weyauwega and Neopit, however, now are tied for third place and both have a chance to climb higher before the first half ends on July 5. Weyauwega won a well-played game for Waupaca 2 to 1 and Neopit shut out Manitowish 5 to 0. Marion overwhelmed a weak Shawano team 20 to 3.

Butte des Morts Has Biggest "Stag" Party

Butte des Morts golfers had one of the biggest stag parties of the season yesterday at the club. The heat brought out a surprising number of players and they and others who came out for the dinner remained around long into the night.

Charles Peerenboom won blind bogey honors with other prizes going to Nick Engler, George A. Schmidt, James Lyons, Dr. E. F. McGrath, Bob Zaunmeyer, L. F. Hartwig, R. W. Walter, Glen Carroll and Merrill Hopkins.

Begin Work on New Bleachers in Cub Park

Chicago—(P) Workmen began reconstruction of the bleacher seat layout at the Cub's Wrigley field today, with plans calling for increasing of bleacher seats from 1, as the Mud Hens were losing to Kansas City, 7 to 4.

Kansas City unleashed a 16 hit attack on Toledo to chalk up a win for Ted Kleinmans, who went the distance. Boone and Garland divided duties for the heats.

In a fourth night game, St. Paul's lovely Saints banged out 20 hits, the evening's standout offensive performance, to defeat Indianapolis, 8 to 3. Little Art Herring went the route for the Saints, allowing nine hits, as Paze, Nelson and Braxton toiled for the losers.

Minnesota gained a full game on Toledo in the battle for the circuit lead, defeating Louisville, 5 to 1.

Frankie Parker Wins At Wimbledon Tourney

Wimbledon, Eng.—(P) Frankie Parker, youthful American tennis star, moved into the quarter finals of the Wimbledon championships today with a straight set victory over Daniel Frenn of Germany. Scores were 6-4, 7-5, 6-2.

An unfortunate incident marred the match. Parker had taken the first set and Frenn was leading 5-0 in the second when a young man in the packed center court, attacked by a fit, began loosing unceasingly.

Frenn appeared to be badly shaken as a first aid crew removed the struggling man, and the German's game went entirely to pieces. Parker easily ran up seven straight games. The American had a bad fall in the twenty-third game.

Marion Youth Is Winner in County Tennis Tourney

Victor in Junior Division Of WPA Meet at New London

New London—Bud Borchardt of Marion won the Junior tennis finals in the WPA Waupaca county tennis tournament at Clintonville Wednesday by defeating Lester Bernat of Clintonville three out of five sets. Both boys are eligible to the district finals at Wausau in July.

In the boys events Loren Lee of Scandinavia took first place in a round robin tournament by winning all four matches. Warren Snyder of Clintonville was second with three wins and Robert Babin, Waupaca, was third with two even. The first two winners also are eligible for the district contests.

Others in the Junior events for boys 14 to 19 years of age were Roy Holly, Waupaca; Bruce Brown, Marion; Robert Wilkinson, New London; and Richard Gunderson, Iowa. Boys events were for those under 14 years and other contestants were William Sebald, Menawa, and Philip Nelson, Iowa.

Ankus Kreischmer, New London, W.P.A. recreational worker, accompanied the New London player and assisted at the matches.

Parachute Jumper to Appear at 2-Day Fete

Clintonville—Thrills will be provided during the golden jubilee when Harrison Rice, veteran parachute jumper, leaps from 10,000 feet with a parachute. The exhibition will be given Sunday and Monday, July 4 and 5, at 4:30 in the afternoon.

In his delayed jumps, which are considered as dangerous to the jumper as they are thrilling to the spectator, Mr. Rice "bails out" from an aeroplane at 10,000 feet, shoots like a plummet to the earth for 6,000 feet, before he pulls the ripcord which opens his chute.

At the moment the parachute opens, the jumper experiences a shock like that of a terrific impact, as the chute snaps open with a noisy "crack." Then, with luck with him, Mr. Rice floats to the ground. He will attempt to land upon the baseball diamond in Athletic park each day before spectators attending the ball games.

Plan Church Services In School Auditorium

New London—Services of the Emanuel Lutheran church will be held at the Washington high school auditorium Sunday morning and each week thereafter until the completion of repairs to the church building. It was announced this week by the Rev. W. E. Fankow, pastor.

The regular services will be held at the usual time, German services at 8:30 and English services at 10 o'clock. It is expected the repairs will extend over a period of six weeks.

New London Office

News and circulation departments of the Appleton Post-Crescent are represented in New London by Alvin J. Brault, 103 E. Cook street. News items and orders for subscriptions may be left at that address or may be telephoned by calling 18. Papers missed by carriers will be delivered if complaint is made before 7 p. m.

Record Crowd at Hatten Swim Pool As Mercury Soars

New London—The warmest weather so far this year, 86 degrees above zero reported yesterday by A. L. Haase, government weather observer, last night drew a record crowd of paid admissions to the new Hatten Memorial park swimming pool. A total of 127 entered the pool between 7 and 10 o'clock last night while only 11 were accommodated during the ladies day period in the afternoon. About 120 girls bathed free of charge in the morning. The previous high for attendance at the pool was last Sunday when 84 bathers registered.

In connection with the heat, Haase reported that the Wolf river at present is still 4 feet above the average summer level. The mark of two feet read yesterday was the lowest this year. During the dry spell last year it reached the same mark below zero on the scale.

New London Society

New London—Unique prizes awarded at the meeting of the Dorcas society of the Methodist church yesterday afternoon were for the member present who was in organization the longest and the one who was the newest member. Mrs. August Brenske, a member 30 years, won the first prize and Mrs. Clarence Webber who joined the group two weeks ago won the second prize.

Ed Jagoditch entertained the Men's Catholic Order of Foresters with an account of his experiences in the World War at a social meeting of the group at the parish hall Wednesday evening. J. H. Schoenhaar was in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Al VanAlstine won the bridge prize and Mrs. John Knapstein won at schafkopf when the Senior sodality of the Most Precious Blood Catholic church held its regular meeting at the parish hall yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Fred Loss received a third prize.

The Del Monte club met with Mrs. Fred Noack yesterday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. August Mesheke and Mrs. Otto Mearitz. In two weeks Mrs. George Prignatz will entertain.

Mrs. Rosaline Schoenrock entertained the Friendly club at the last meeting of the season at her home yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Fred Dornbrook and Mrs. Frank Schoenrock, Jr., won the prizes. The club will resume meetings next September.

The last indoor social of the summer was held by the Happy Hour club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Webb Wednesday evening. The group plans occasional picnics during the summer until regular meetings are resumed next fall. Prizes at cards Wednesday night were won by Mrs. Henry Christiansen and Mrs. Allan Edminster. Ervin Stelnert and Henry Christiansen.

New Books for Adult Readers Put in Circulation at New London Library

New London—Ten books were added to the circulation list of the New London public library today, among them several for adult readers.

A small volume for the fatigued office worker, "Why Be Tired" by Daniel W. Josselyn, carries simple and sane advice on diet, exercise and other bits of knowledge which show how to make the most of bodily energy.

"Rose Dear Rose" by Sheila Kaye-Smith, author of "Susan Spry," is a novel of the Kentish countryside, portraying emotion, drama, tragedy and hope experienced in the life of this one woman.

The romance of a nameless girl and a boy of Virginia's aristocracy is told in "Pedigree of Honey" a novel by Barbara Webb.

Replacements of popular books in the Junior readers' library are "Sand," the story of a cowboy and his horse by Will James, and "Seventeen," a Booth Tarkington tale of youth and summer time and the Baxter family, especially William. The recent story hour book, "Fairy Tales Every Child Should Know" has been catalogued for withdrawal by the children. "Christopher Columbus" is the story of the voyager's life. "Merrimack" is a collection of fairy tales as told by William Byrd to his 7-year-old daughter. Other children's books are "The Story of Milk" and "The Ugly Duckling."

TAKES VACATION Miss Irma Hilde, librarian, will leave Sunday to spend a two weeks' vacation in northern Wisconsin near Manitowish at the summer camp of her cousin, R. S. Pentler. Mrs. Lucille Frieberg, assistant librarian, will be in charge of the library in her absence.

Over 100 Students for Priesthood at Villa

Waupaca—More than 100 students preparing for the Jesuit priesthood are expected this week at Loyola Villa, situated between Rainbow and Sunset lakes. Established in 1866 as a resort for professors of the various Jesuit colleges of the Missouri, the villa has been enlarged and improved and now it serves the purposes of a normal school.

The following institutions are represented at Loyola Villa: St. Louis (Mo.) University; Creighton university, Omaha, Neb.; Loyola university, Chicago; University of Detroit; Marquette university, Milwaukee; St. John's university, Toledo, Ohio; St. Mary's (Kans.) college; Sacred Heart college, Prairie du Chien; St. Ignace college, Cleveland; St. Xavier college, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Many improvements have been made at the Villa this year. An old barn was torn down and made into a garage. A large septic tank built and modern plumbing installed within the buildings.

Vandenbroek Fire Plan Is Rejected

Little Chute Board Decides Village Can't Give Protection to Town

Little Chute—It was decided not to give fire protection to the town of Vandenbroek after hearing an opinion rendered by a local attorney, Allen C. Cain, at a meeting of the members of the village board Tuesday evening. The opinion was that the village of Little Chute having but one fire truck, it would not be advisable for the department to go out of the village limits. John Diederich, chairman of the town of Vandenbroek was present at the meeting.

It was also decided to oil the rest of the streets within the next week the oil for this purpose has already been shipped. The renewal of fermented malt beverage license to Mrs. Anna Van Gompel, Grand avenue, was denied by the board because her place of business is opposite the school and too many children under 18 years of age are loitering around. The village clerk was instructed to write to Senator Mike Mack and to Assemblyman Rohan asking them to vote in favor of Bill No. 167A or any other bill which would be amended to accomplish the same results. These bills are in regard to providing approximately a 20 per cent increase in the mileage aids for cities, villages and towns with possibly a little more for villages.

A new electric fan was purchased for the village hall from the Verkuilen Furniture store of this village. Trustee Peter G. Jansen was appointed by the board to serve on the Equalization board which will meet next week.

Mrs. John H. Van Gompel is confined to her home on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gloude-mans and son, Lee, and Mrs. Peter A. Gloude-mans were guests of friends in Neenah, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen M. Peeters spent Sunday in Milwaukee with relatives.

Miss Camilla Kostka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kostka, left Sunday for a two weeks visit with relatives in Ladysmith.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kostka of Chicago were guests Sunday at the Paul Kostka home, Main street.

Misses Betty, Coline and Mary Lou Hanagrat are spending a two weeks vacation in Rockford, Ill., with relatives.

Workers Alliance to Hear Boileau at Meet

Post-Crescent Washington Bureau Washington—Members of the Wisconsin Workers alliance will hear their champion in congress, Representative Gerald J. Boileau, Wausau, speak at their convention in Milwaukee, Friday, June 25.

Boileau plans to talk on relief in general. His relief bill, which embodied the principles and demands of the Workers' alliance, was not reported out of committee, although he frequently, during debate on the

Card Party Is Given At Shiocton Dwelling

Shiocton—Mr. and Mrs. George Bruehl entertained friends at cards at their home Wednesday evening. Women's high at schafskopf was awarded to Mrs. Tony Diemerle and low to Mrs. Alvin Mielke, and men's high to Ed Rueden and low to Lester Schmidt.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Mielke, Mr. and Mrs. William Ruch and daughter, Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Diemerle, Mr. and Mrs. Rolhe Helder and son, Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neusbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peep and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rueden and daughter, Agnes.

The strawberry festival given at the Congregational church parlor Wednesday afternoon by the Willing Workers was well attended.

Mrs. Orrie Langman of Appleton is making an extended visit with friends and relatives in this vicinity.

She is a sister of Mrs. Bert Thompson and Odo Volentine and was a former Shiocton resident.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Pingel and son, Donny Lee, of Chilton, spent Wednesday evening with relatives in the village.

Charles Bidwell, DePere, visited at the Edgar Peep home Wednesday evening. He was accompanied home by his mother, Mrs. M. A. Bidwell, who had been visiting at the Peep home.

relief bill in the house and at other times, urged passage of a bill such as his, which would authorize three billion dollars for the coming year instead of the $1,500,000,000 just authorized by congress.

MURDER ON THE BLUFF

Farrington to keep us going, we picked at food in an uncomfortable silence. I could not bear to look at Higgins. Had he offered me that gun deliberately, knowing that it had already been wiped clean of the murderer's fingerprints? Would he have denied the entire episode in court?

I thought that he would. In my imagination the frail old man was beginning to take on the proportions of a Faustian Mephisto. What had he started to tell me before he changed his mind? Anything? He might have been building up that chain of circumstantial evidence deliberately.

Higgins was the owner of the gun which had in all probability killed Jude Blinshop and wounded M. Farrington. Our searches had disclosed no other weapons in the house. Whoever used that gun on Jude must have cleaned and re-loaded it before it was handed to Michael on Friday night. And who had as good an opportunity for doing that as Higgins?

True, he had been with the rest of us when the episode in the kitchen transpired, and in the room with all the others when William and I met our fate. But in both cases the active presence of the lunatic was not only possible, but distinctly probable. The noiseless tread that had always seemed pleasant to me before suddenly became threatening and sinister. I jumped every time the man came near me with food.

There was no longer any sense in dodging the fact that the murderer must be a recognized inmate of the house. The possibility of a second unknown wandering the Bluff in darkness was absurd. It was obvious that the person who shot M. Farrington had known just where to find her, just where to dispose of his or her gun, just where to conceal himself or herself after the shot had been fired.

(Copyright, 1937, Esther Tyler) Tomorrow, I check Norman Farrington's sinister activities.

Authority Bill Would Lose in Vote by Farmers

Assemblyman Shimek Battles for Amendment To Measure

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Assemblyman Albert D. Shimek, (D), Algoma, militant La-Follette foe in the lower house, yesterday reiterated his claim that the farmers of Wisconsin would never approve the La-Follette-sponsored Wisconsin Development authority bill if the proposition were presented to them on the ballot.

"The Wisconsin farmer would defeat this bill because it gives the authority power to engaged in any line of business, including farming," he said after defeat of an amendment to the bill which would have postponed the effective date of the act until after the question had been approved by Wisconsin voters in a referendum in September, 1938.

Shimek battled fruitfully for the passage of his amendment however, and saw it defeated by a vote of 52 to 39, with several Progressives absent.

Another change advocated by the Kewaunee county assemblyman also was beaten quickly by the organized Progressive majority bloc. This amendment would have stricken from the bill granting authority to the authority to enter the utility field the words "or such other lawful purposes as it may deem proper." These words, Shimek feels, give the WDA power to socialize all Wisconsin industry.

5-Year Program Planned at Meet

Will Raise 50 Million Dollars in Y. M. C. A. National Campaign

A "Forward" program for Young Men's Christian associations in the United States in approaching the one hundredth anniversary in 1944 was announced today by John E. Manley, general secretary of the National Council of Young Men's Christian associations.

During the next five years a total of 50 million dollars will be raised by local Y. M. C. A.'s for new buildings, rehabilitation, debt campaigns and in strengthening and extending "Y" programs throughout the country, according to information received by Homer L. Genhardt, general secretary of the Appleton Y. M. C. A.

In presenting a 5-year survey covering 1932-37, statistics showed that the membership in the United States had increased to a total of 1,121,009, a gain of 32.3 per cent over 1932, with an additional constituency of 670,000 men and boys participating in various activities, showing a gain of 50 per cent. Mr. Manley also reported that a pension plan providing for Y. M. C. A. workers, non-profit agency employees, who are excluded from coverage of the Social Security act, has been prepared and will be launched July 1.

Hilbert Women Back From State Conclave

Hilbert — Mrs. Adolph Olander and Mrs. F. E. Pieper returned home Wednesday evening from Sheboygan, having attended the state convention of the Women's Relief corps since Monday morning. The convention was held Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Sheboygan High school. The former was a delegate representing the local corp and acted as aide at the convention. Mrs. Pieper was assistant conductor and was elected department chaplain.

Divine services will be conducted at the village hall Sunday evening by the Rev. J. M. Ayres of Chilton. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Paulsen, who resided on E. Main street, moved Wednesday to Watertown, where Mr. Paulsen has accepted employment.

Mrs. Fred Hostetter was hostess to the Dorcas Guild Friday afternoon. The next meeting will be a picnic at Hawley beach. Henry Bodenbender, Mrs. Armand Schwabenz and Mrs. Richard Orlepp visited the former's wife at Fond du Lac Thursday. She has been a patient at St. Agnes hospital since the last three weeks. A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Gild at their home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Nees, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiehnans attended the wedding dance of a relative, Edward Thelen and Almeda Freund, at Marytown Gardens at Marytown Wednesday evening.

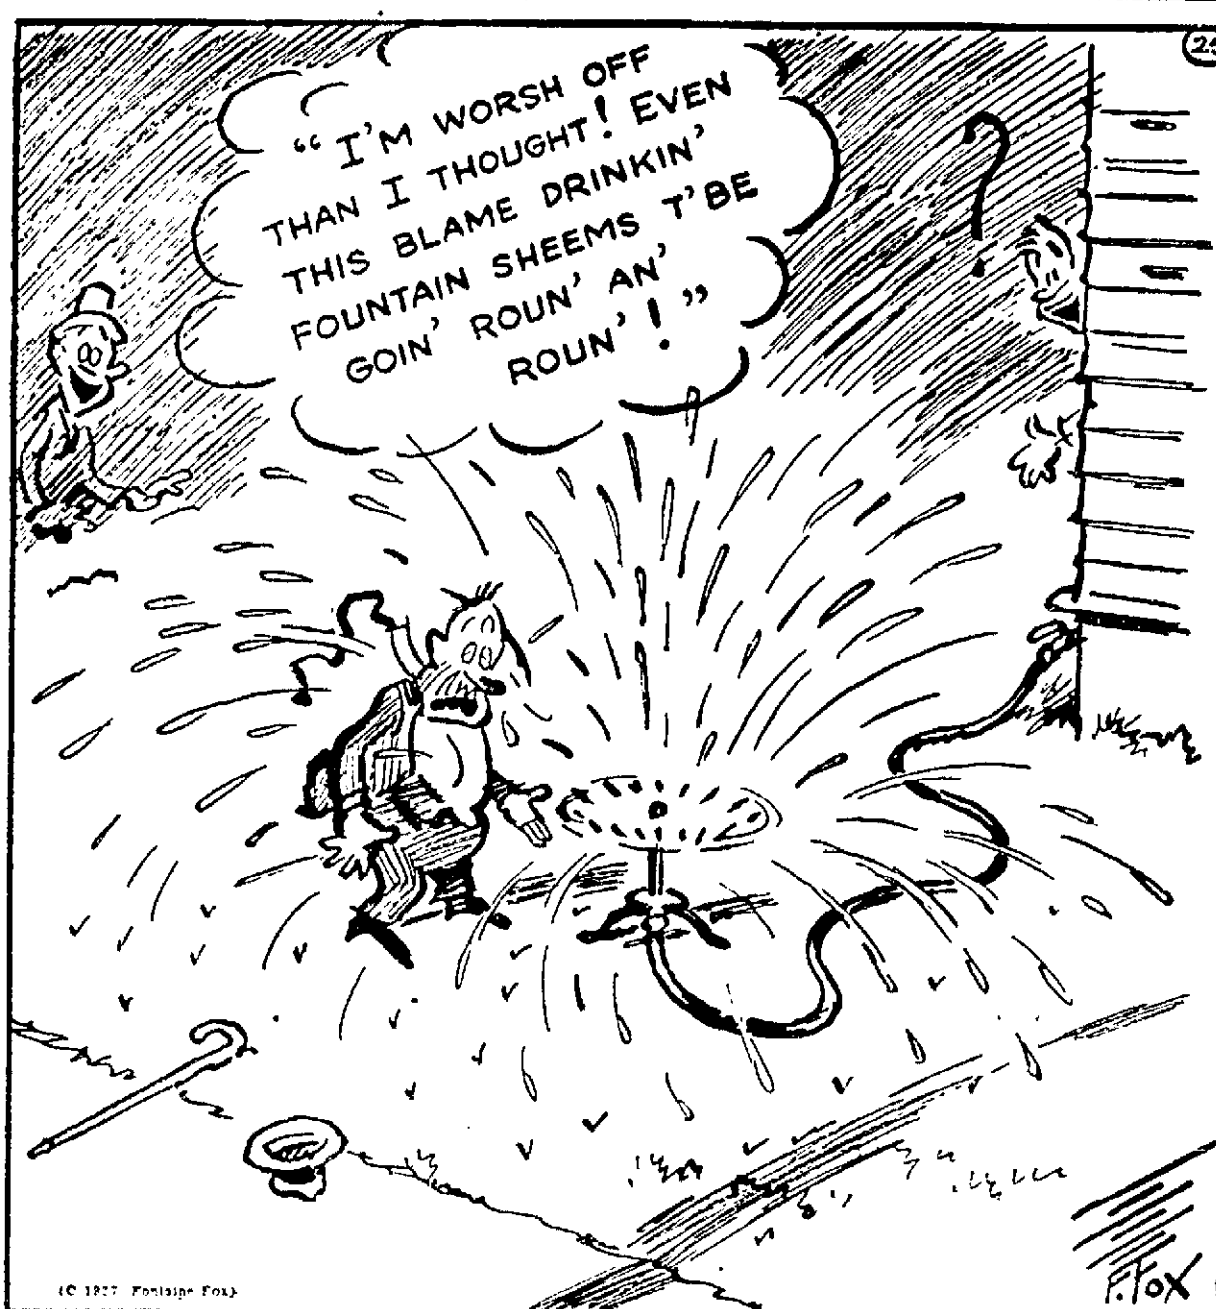

James Ziskind returned home Tuesday having attended Washington school at Sheboygan the last school year. He was a member of the confirmation class at Sheboygan Sunday, dinner being served at the R. F. hall to 215 guests. Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Nees, kind and daughter Jennie of Hilbert were among the guests for the occasion.

Mrs. V. W. McGaughey of Waukegan is a guest at the W. F. Palmer home for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Duckow of Hilbert accompanied by George Duckow of Potter and Mrs. Herman Jandry of Brillion motored to Marshfield Thursday to visit their father, Albert Duckow, who is a patient at the hospital there.

The Louis Durn family which has occupied the upper flat of the Louis Segrist dwelling on Fifth street vacated it on Tuesday and moved to Stockbridge.

The tea plant grows 15 to 30 feet high in nature, but planters keep their shrubs trimmed to from 3 to 5 feet.

Vets Leave for State Encampment at Wausau

A number of members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Harvey Pierre post, left yesterday for the annual state encampment at Wausau. The encampment opened Thursday and will continue through Saturday afternoon. Delegates of the post to the convention are Carl Rehfeldt, Harvey Kittner, Ernest Mueller, Arthur Slater, Theodore Albrecht, Robert J. Olson, Irwin Tornow, Carl Wagner, Barney Gamsky and John Haug.

Logging Dam Flowage, Pond to be Restored

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison — The old logging dam flowage and pond of 550 acres on the Little Peshigo river about four miles from Coleman may be restored, the state public service commission announced Thursday. The commission ordered a permit to be granted to Marinette county for the restoration work. Purpose of the restoration was given as recreation and conservation.

County Highway Patrol To Test Automobiles

Road tests on all cars traveling in the county will be made in the next few days, according to the county highway department. Motorcycle police have been instructed to stop cars during the daytime and put them through a uniform test which includes a check on the lighting and braking equipment. Owners of cars which have not had their lights tested will be instructed to have the test made immediately.

Display Books on Adult Education at Library

In keeping with a nation-wide program to promote development of adult civic education, a display of books on adult education is being displayed at the Appleton Public Library. The display also shows literature revealing what some organizations are doing in promoting the program.

At the present time there is a bill before the United States legislature that provides for an expenditure of $2,200,000 to be used to co-operate with states and school districts to forward the plan and to pay forum and discussion leaders.

Among the books in the display are: "Can America Stay at Home" by Simonds, "The Open Door at Home" by Beard, "The Marks of an Educated Man" by Wiggan, "Why Stop Learning" by Fisher, "Adult Education" by Bryson, "The Citizen and His Government" by Smith, "A Program for Modern America" by Laidler, "The Economy of Abundance" by Chase.

"Economics for Helen" by Belloc, "The Economics of Recovery" by Ayres, "The Intelligent Man's View of Europe Today" by Cole and Cole, "Who Owns America" by Agar and Tate, "Inside Europe" by Gunther, "Alumni and Adult Education" by Shaw, "The Foreign Relations of the United States" by Mowrer, "The Pacific Area in International Relations" by Condliffe, "Conflicts in American Public Opinion" by White and Myer and "Capital and Labor" by Fitch.

BEAR CREEK ITEMS

Bear Creek — Maurice Moriarity, who is employed at a CCC camp in northern Wisconsin, is spending a 10-day vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moriarity.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Balthazor have moved from rooms in the C. M. Norder residence to the Mrs. Mary Jane Monty home.

Miss Margaret Doyle, Mrs. Mary Thornton of Minneapolis, Mrs. J. Moran, and Mrs. C. Doyle of Fond du Lac were callers at the Miss Katherine Murphy home Wednesday.

Howard P. Gerlach is acting as PWA engineer, on the project at Bear Creek High school gymnasium during the absence of Lawrence Manteufel. The latter is on a vacation.

Adjournment of Legislature on July 2 Opposed

Northern Wisconsin Assemblymen Against Special Session

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau. Madison—Purported plans of the Progressives in the assembly to force an adjournment of the legislature early in July will not get any support from the northern-western Wisconsin members of that house, they have indicated.

Sentiment for a speedy adjournment has grown rapidly in the last few weeks, and caucuses of all parties discussed the subject this week. The assembly will act Friday on a resolution by Senator Herman J. Severson, Iowa Progressive, for a sine die adjournment on July 2, following which, according to reports, Governor LaFollette will call a special session for the consideration of relief, public welfare reorganization and the governor's proposed plan to revamp executive departments.

Assemblyman William Sweeney, DePere, while admitting that he is eager to get home to his private affairs, prefers to handle pending legislation without resort to a special session. Assemblyman Frank N. Braas of Sturgeon Bay feels that adoption of a resolution of adjournment on July 2 would mean a filibuster from now to that date by members to kill certain bills and in retaliation for the automatic killing of their own.

Assemblyman Mark S. Catlin Jr. of Appleton, the only Republican member from the Fox River Valley is opposed to a special session, he said, while thoughtful William R. Han of Kaukauna, a Democrat declared:

"If I have my way we'd go home right now. We have made public nuisances of ourselves for five months while we have done nothing."

Assemblyman Frank J. Lingelbach of Oconto, Democrat, desires that adjournment be postponed until some action is taken on the dozen or more old age pension bills now before both houses. He is particularly anxious that a bill will be passed providing for homestead exemptions for old age pensioners.

Important Bills. There are too many important bills still pending for an adjournment during the next month, Assemblyman Albert D. Shimek, Algoma Democrat feels:

"If we'd quit and go home now before acting on them, all our efforts thus far would be wasted. A special session for the passage of those bills will mean more expense for the taxpayers also," he declared.

Assemblyman Harold A. Lytle of Green Bay is another who looks upon the prospects of a special session for the consideration of the most important remaining legislation with no particular relish. Lytle is one of those who manages a private business in the intervals when he is not answering roll call in the house, and if there is a chance of another session to be avoided, he said he would be grateful.

Milwaukee Plans Summer Festival

Invitational Tour Will be Made of Fox River Valley Cities

Members of the commission for Milwaukee's fifth annual mid-summer festival to be held July 17 to 21 will extend Appleton a personal invitation to attend the celebration. They will visit Appleton as well as other Fox river valley cities to extend the invitation and will meet with local city officials on July 6.

The invitational tour will include Appleton, Green Bay, De Pere, Kaukauna, Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Oshkosh, Two Rivers, Neenah and Wausau.

As the opening feature of the festival on July 17 a Venetian night and a series of boat races have been arranged. Over 50 power boats and yachts will finish a race from Chicago to Milwaukee that afternoon. A parade of the yachts and other craft will be staged at night.

A WPA pageant, "The Birth of the Constitution" will depict the events in American life from the landing of Christopher Columbus to the ratification of the constitution. A folk dance festival of many nations and an outdoor opera will be given.

Other attractions include nightly fireworks, an air show, with about 200 airplanes in maneuvers and stunts, an Indian village and a concert by an all-state high school band of 260 students.

Vienna Can See Own Star Only In Foreign Films

Elisabeth Bergner Plays in British and American Pictures

Vienna—The Vienna public must go to an American or British cinema if it wants to see its native darling Elisabeth Bergner.

This is the lament of "Die Stimme," prominent Jewish newspaper here, which says it is "The result of a cultural policy that pays for having let Jews to be 'foreign' artists."

Hidden Drive. "Cold anti-Semitism" is phrased here to mean that but had Bergner been a Jew — as was her father — she would have been "foreign" in culture life.

The actress of this anti-Jewish offensive is inspired from a center supported by Nazi Germany, the paper declares.

Movies, theater, opera, music literature are all feeling its subtle influence through a series of dismissals and refusals to hire Jews.

Austrian film industry had an added incentive to hire only non-Jews. The plan was unsuccessful, however, "Die Stimme," declares, because Germany retained as frozen marks the money it paid for Austrian films. And such other mardens as Holland and Sweden, displaced at the lower standard of Austrian pictures, started to favor American and British productions.

IT'S BECOME A HABIT. Columbia, Mo. — Miss Emily Roach, Kansas City, is the last of 13 brothers and sisters to receive a degree from the University of Missouri.

Court Tests to Decide Dispute In 'Oleo' Case

Want to Know Whether Products are Violation of Food Laws

Madison—Court tests, both criminal and civil, have been instituted to obtain a decision as to whether the sale of two products manufactured by the John F. Jelke Co., Chicago, is a violation of the oleomargarine laws, according to an announcement of Charles L. Hill, chairman of the department of agriculture and markets.

Orders for the actions were issued for a leading Wisconsin wholesale merchant selling the products and suit has been started against the wholesale firm for the license fee of $500 provided by statute for the sale of oleomargarine in the state.

The John F. Jelke Co., manufactures two products. One is alleged to be vegetable fat, the other a mixture of coloring matter and water and possibly other ingredients. The department claims that mixture of the products forms oleomargarine. Up to recently it is said the sales in Wisconsin of the products were entirely by separate package. The department claims, however, that it now has evidence the two packages are being sold together. Legal opinions were rendered last fall that when the two packages were sold separately a successful prosecution could not be maintained for the violation of the Wisconsin oleomargarine law.

Department inspectors have recently been making inquiries of both retailers and wholesalers in regard to the sale of the combined packages. Retailers have almost uniformly agreed to await a court test before making further sales, they report.

Hollywood News And Gossip

BY ROBBIN COONS

Hollywood — Wayne Morris already has learned that a hit picture brings more than fan mail. He has had to surrender his life-long right to his own haircut.

The other day I found him, grinning but miserable, in the studio hair-dressing department. He had been ordered to have his hair cut. He was grinning because he had been ordered to have his hair cut. He was miserable because he had been ordered to have his hair cut.

At the ordeal's end, the Morris that was subdued. Plastered down under a silk stocking cap, it was ordered to remain there until further notice. Wayne didn't mind that so much. It was just this: in future he must get his hair cut at the studio, under direct supervision of the lady hairdressers.

Onward — and — upward note: Three of the year's finer films are proving disappointments at the box-office. "Call It a Day," "Make Way for Tomorrow" and "Captains Courageous."

In "You Can't Have Everything," Alice Faye has to be romantic with Don Ameche. For Alice's close-ups the man just out of camera range is not Ameche, but Tony Martin. Director Norman Taurog thought it might help realism. Tony and Alice being realistically romantic.

For "Land of the Living," Peter Lorre has most of his head shaved, and wears a twisted moustache, looking like nothing more than a plump caricature of Darryl Zanuck, his boss. Lorre is playing a German officer — pre-Hitler — and his next film is the second "Mr. Moto" number. He won't start it until Mr. Moto's hair grows back.

Sam Goldwyn and Jack Warner were talking via telephone about an exchange of players. Warner told Goldwyn he'd deliver when Goldwyn delivered Miriam Hopkins and stopped stating.

"I'm telling you, Jack, I'll do what I said," said Goldwyn into the telephone. "Sure as I'm looking at you, I will."

I was talking to Director Ramon Novarro on the "Life Begins with Love" set when the Jewish cameraman, Irving Kline, called him aside.

"I'm leaving Ray," said Kline. "I've got an offer."

McCarey looked concerned. "A good offer, huh?"

"Yeah," said Kline. "A good offer. From Germany. One thousand a week, all expenses paid, and a state funeral."

St. Ananias, bishop of Alexandria, was recently a cable who was converted to Christianity while fixing an eye.

Appleton Has Low Ratio Of Handicapped Citizens

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison—Appleton is among the cities of Wisconsin with the lowest ratio of physically handicapped citizens, the annual census of the division of rehabilitation of the department of vocational education showed today.

The city census of the handicapped shows a rate of 10 per thousand, which is lower than many other cities of the same size. Total number of handicapped in Appleton is 257 of which 139 are being rehabilitated through the department's work, the report shows.

Neighboring communities showed: Kaukauna, 115 or 17 per thousand; Little Chute, 28 or 10 per thousand; Clintonville, 45, or 12 per thousand; Kimberly, 24 or 11 per thousand; Menasha, 36 or 11 per thousand; Neenah, 106 or 11 per thousand; New London, 71 or 15 per thousand; Oshkosh, 441 or 17 per thousand; Shawano, 70 or 17 per thousand; Waupaca, 50 or 16 per thousand.

Principle aim of the state department of rehabilitation is the return of the employable cripple to employment which is suitable for him. In 1927 the state legislature enacted laws for the establishment of special orthopedic schools, of which Appleton has one, in cooperation with the local communities.

Treated in Schools
In these schools the crippled child receives elementary education as well as physiotherapy treatment.

ment, and such schools are supervised by the state department of instruction. The rehabilitation division and the local schools work on the principle that correction, care and early education are requisite for the best possible service to be rendered crippled persons who want to obtain a suitable niche in economic society.

In his annual report to the legislature, W. F. Faulkes, supervisor of the state rehabilitation service recommended an extension of the present services.

"This should include a program of rehabilitation for those who have such extreme physical handicaps that they cannot hope to enter the regular employments and are confined to the home or its immediate environment. These people are sometimes known as the shut-ins or the home-bound."

"Many of these crippled people are of normal mentality, and capable of doing high quality hand-craft work, but home instruction is necessary to develop such abilities and talents.

"A complete vocational rehabilitation program must recognize the needs of all the crippled people of our state, and it is of paramount importance that the needs of this group be recognized at an early date," he told the legislators.

Oriental's Purchase Of Gall Stones Has Packers Guessing

Chicago —(AP)—A puzzle in the meat packing industry which even the packers cannot solve is—what do orientals do with the gall stones they buy?

The stones, one of more than 126 cattle by-products, sell at prices ranging from $75 to $125 a pound. Japanese and Chinese buyers snap up all they can get and never haggle over the cost.

When asked why they are willing to pay so much, the buyers merely smile and shrug their shoulders.

One explanation is that orientals, especially the Chinese, use powdered gall as a base for medicine to build strength, keep themselves awake, reduce fever, revive dying persons and to drive evil spirits from the body. It is also said they use it as a dye for tinting chinaware.

The stones found in the gall bladder of mature cows and steers, vary in size from a pinhead to a bird's egg. Packers say that 100,000 cattle yield about one pound of gall stones.

Mailman Delivers Letter on Which He Paid Postage

Bristow, Okla. —(AP)—It cost Ray Miller 39 cents to send a letter to a girl living in the same town and then he had to deliver it himself. Miller, a rural mail carrier, said he wrote asking the girl for a date. He paid one cent for a stamp, 15 cents for registry, 10 cent for special delivery, 10 cents for an addressee-only designation and three cents for a return receipt.

When time came for delivery the city mail carrier was ill. Miller was called on to substitute and delivered the letter.
